HALLOWEEN PARTY IS HOSTESS' BADGE TEST

Carolyn Hancock, Catherine Bishop and Barbara Hiltz entertained the 1st Glen Guide and Brownie Pack with a Halloween party November 1st as part of their hostess badge. Mrs. Desmond Earl was the tester and each girl was successful in passing. Two films "Stage Coach Hoax" and "Three Little Bruins Go to Camp" were shown. Mrs. Earl and the Guides judged the costumes. Prizes to Brownies were — best costume, Pat Armitage, funniest Alice Frankruyter; original, Dini Schipper. Prizes to Guides, best costume, Pam Armitage; funniest, Elida Kalin; original, Helen Van Klink. After games and a sing-song, a lovely lunch was served by the three Guide hostesses.

On the occasion of Mrs. Hunter's birthday, a supper party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Hunter on Sunday. Those present were her brother Harold Hancock of Blue Springs, her daughter, Mrs. Morris Miller, Mr. Miller and two of their children, Sharon and Douglas of Brampton and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Garvin.

Jetty, Ademo had a party at her home on October 28th to celebrate her fifth birthday to which she invited a number of her little girl friends.

Allan Wheeler celebrated his 10th birthday by taking a group of boys to the theatre Saturday and home for a party lunch afterwards. AWZ Jacqueline Lucas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lucas, who joined the RCAF this fall, had Mandy Davis, whose home is in Vancouver, with her when she visited for the week-end. The girls are stationed at St. Jean, Quebec. Jacqueline completes her course there Friday and will probably be transferred to Clinton.

Tim Haines spent the mid-term week-end at home here, returning to Appelly College for classes on Tuesday morning.

Nice to report that Mrs. Mary Cooper, who was a patient in the Guelph General Hospital following a heart attack, returned home on Saturday.

TO THE CITIZENS OF GEORGETOWN

OWING TO THE FACT that my time will be limited in the coming year, I will not be a candidate for council at the forthcoming nominations on November 28th.

I want to thank the people of Georgetown for putting their confidence in me for the past seven years, during which time I have tried to do my best for the municipality as a whole.

To the new council, I want to wish them the very best in 1958.

PINEGROVE

FARM FORUM HOLDS SEASON'S FIRST MEET

The first meeting for the season of the Farm Forum met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Alexander. The subject was National Farm policy. There were fourteen members present. The group was glad to welcome as members Mr. and Mrs. Foster Brain and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Elia.

The children of the community enjoyed a Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Brown. The members of the community are glad to welcome a new member Bruce McGee, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGee.

Pinegrove is still holding up the reputation for Halton County as John Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Wilson and Tom Hunter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hunter, made such a good showing at the Halton plowing match a week ago.

Gordon L. Hill Heads Farmers' Union

"We are now recognized as a National Farm organization, in Ottawa and are fast becoming 'the spokesman for Canadian Agriculture,'" said James Patterson, chairman of Interprovincial Farm Union Council, when addressing the sixth annual convention of Ontario Farmers' Union in Memorial Hall, OAC, Guelph, Tuesday, October 22. Four hundred and fifty delegates were in attendance, being the largest convention to date. "Farm unions, six or seven years ago were ridiculed and classed as radicals. It is significant that the Liberal party now claims that they must become radical if they hope to again get on their feet," continued the speaker. "Although the past government ignored warnings by farm unions as to agriculture's fast deteriorating economic position, those conditions have become prevalent and while we must give our new Government time to put their house in order, farmers must not sit idle but continue to build this grassroots organization and to have pride in it and themselves," said Mr. Patterson.

Mr. Cleve Kidd, recently elected president of Ontario Federation of Labor spoke on farmer-labour relations and said that no group is so isolated that its welfare is of no concern to others. Referring to the decreased farm cash income, Mr. Kidd claimed that his labor organization was reminded that a recession in one section only, soon spreads.

Mrs. W. C. Taylor, past president of Women's Union of Alberta and executive member of Farmers' Union of Alberta, reviewed Alberta farm-union history over the past 52 years and outlined the relationship now existing between farm union of Alberta and the Alberta Federation of Agriculture. She stressed the fact that the Alberta Federation is merely a co-ordinating council and that the Farmers' Union of Alberta is a policy-making body and the only farm organization having direct contact with the farmer on the land through locals in each community.

Convention resolutions passed included the present hog direction system and asked that before a hog vote is taken that the O.F.U. should be consulted regarding the marketing of the hog. The Union has always supported the principles of Marketing Boards but the convention did not favour the hog assembly point system. It suggested that the Co-Op marketing board should sell and direct hogs straight from the farmers' stable to the buyers. When quoting gross farm income, Government Departments were requested to also quote net to be headed by Trade Minister Churchill and which will visit England and shortly. Positive opposition to any increase in Rural Bell Telephone rates was also unanimous. President A. V. Cormack reported that the organization now has 300 Locals in Ontario with 7 new county organizations having been established during the past year, and which organization is composed of grass roots direct dues-paying membership and truly controlled by its membership. to establish a full parity support price and that the difference between the market price and the parity price should be paid directly to the cream producer through means of deficiency payments, as another of the 70 resolutions passed by the convention. A further resolution requested the Federal Government to include representatives of Interprovincial Farm Union Council on the Canadian delegation to be headed by Trade Minister Churchill and which will visit England and shortly. Positive opposition to any increase in Rural Bell Telephone rates was also unanimous. President A. V. farmers. 2. Terrific farmer political influence as evidenced in last federal election. 3. The 17c floor price on milk powder and 37 1/2c equitable duty rate imposed on all potatoes entering Canada from the USA were largely a result of OFU recommendation. 4. OFU can take all credit for federal government purchase of eggs during spring season which increased and stabilized egg prices.
