ANDERSON'S ROLL 3838 FOR SEASON'S HIGH

Anderson's, receiving top bowling from their whole team, rolled a season's high of 3838 last week in the industrial league, consisting of 1290, 1294, and 1254. Leading the team in this good effort were Duke Wilson with 785 and a 786 from Ray Robson. By winning 7 points, they climbed to third place in the standing behind Silver's and Firemen who also had a 7 point high, and remained tied at the top of the league.

Provincial, after two bad weeks and losing 14 points, bounced back and dropped Kay's for seven.

Duke Wilson's 785 was high triple, closely followed by Jack Harlow, 768 and Ray Robson, 766. Dave Stamp had the top single 332, followed by Ian Greig, 324; Harv Chappel 321; Duke Wilson, 321; Joe Louth 311; George Webster 306. Lorge Cross had a dandy game of 87.

Chappel now leads in high average with 253; followed by Webster, 232; Bill Anderson 230; Nip Shipway and Ace Bailey 229; Terry Bladd 227; Dave Stamp 223; Ray Robson 221; Joe Hall 218; Frank Anderson 217.

Team standings: Firemen and Silver's 38 Anderson's 32; David's 28; Provincials 25; No. 3 Legion 25; Kay's 25; Keeler's 24; No. 1 Legion 22; Barflies 16; No. 3 Legion 16; Dutchies 4.

COMBINES, SMITH & STONE LEADING INDUSTRIAL HOCKEY

JUNIOR GOLFERS PARTY AT GOLF CLUB SATURDAY

A large attendance and some well chosen novelty dances contributed greatly to the success of a Junior Golfers dance party at the North Halton Golf and Country Club Saturday evening.

The second in a series of dances being put on by the Juniors during the fall and winter seasons, it was attended by about 25 couples, and chaperoned by Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Kerby and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Binkley. The music was on records and handled by Mike O'Brien and president Dave Jones.

Carnations were the dance prizes won by Maureen Hepburn and Dave Smith for the statue dance, Maureen Hepburn and Bill Cohoon, broom dance, and Anne Armstrong and Ted Avis for elimination dance. Boutonnieres were also presented to the chaperones.

MINISTER WAS FATHER OF MRS. JIM KIRKWOOD

Rev. N. J. Woods, whose daughter Marion was married this summer to Rev. James Kirkwood, died in London last week after a lengthy illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kirkwood, 4 Pauline Street went to London on Tuesday to attend the funeral service which took place in Calvary United Church. Mr. Woods had held several pastorates in Ontario, his last being in Sarnia. His daughter came east from Marsden, Saskatchewan for the funeral and will be visiting with her in-laws in town before returning west. Mr. Woods leaves his wife and three children, Kenneth and Louise of London and Mrs. James Kirkwood.
