Successful W.A. Bazaar at St. George's

St. George's W.A. held their annual Christmas bazaar last Friday afternoon in the Sunday school rooms. It was a most successful event. The rooms and tea tables were decorated gaily to put the guests in the Christmas mood. Rev. Kenneth Richardson opened the bazaar which was very well attended.
Mrs. Arthur Barnett was the tea room convener, Mrs. Ernest Simson and Mrs. Thomas Hewson were conveners of the home baking, Mrs. F. J. Fryer and Mrs. Thomas Warnes were in charge of the fancy work and apron booth, Mrs. Evelyn Nesbitt convened the touch and take, and Mrs. M. Maynard the fish pond. An added attraction was the booth, the Brownsies were in charge of.

Start sooner, drive slower, live longer, be home for the holidays. DRIVE SAFELY.

LEGION NOTES

By Leslie M. Clark

Well, that party the Lorne Scots "C" Company had last Thursday night was a real one. We haven't had as much fun in a long time. It's particularly nice to go to that ing closed and a social hour followed.
On Friday evening November 8 the Women's Institute held a successful party in Stewarttown Hall. Thirty three tables of euchre, the winners being ladies first, Mrs. T. Gibson, 2nd Mrs. S. Matthews; men 1st, Mr. H. Gilmer; 2nd Mr. J. Cunningham; lunch and dancing to Hulls orchestra followed.
Deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Frank Wilson in the death of her father, Mr. W. J. Blake of Woodbridge last week.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ruddell motored to Montreal recently to visit Mr. Hartley Anderson and children.

yearly affair because we see a lot of people that we don't get to see. The company has always been kind enough to ask some Legion members along, and we appreciate it, along with the rest of the boys. And of course, their wives. The two organizations have always naturally been interested in the welfare and good will of each other, and quite naturally so with the number of each group belonging to both. Discussing it further with some of the boys in the regiment, we believe that there are going to be more get together between the groups and closer cooperation even than heretofore. With Ted Coover leaving the local "C" Company to take over as second in command of the regiment, he will be missed around the company.
This week's column will be a bit on the skippy side, however there is not too much to report anyway.
We were surprised to see the excellent turnout at Brute election in the Community Hall there last Wednesday night. The Legion members were very active in the election.

again down there, and there seems to be quite a good bunch of fellows, all of whom seem to be interested. The president is a chap who runs a jewellery store there and is very keen to make a go of the branch. He's got an excellent set of officers and they should make a real go of it. There building is now underway, and that will make a terrific difference when they get a club-room of their own.
The monthly meeting will be on Thursday evening, November 28th and we expect that there will be a real big turnout again. All our members are urged to come out as there will be an initiation that night.
BLAME THE JOURNAL FOR VANDALISM IN STEWARTTOWN
The Georgetown police office was flooded with calls from auto car owners in the Waterloo Road, Shelly and Brown Street district Sunday night reporting damaged car accidents and stolen property, etc., apparently the work of vandals. The investigation by Sgt. Shelly Lane found that the vandals were from the Georgetown Legion.
