NEWS AROUND the arena Boys, you have now read the list of players and the team you are with. Cut your team list out and keep it until you become familiar with your manager, coach and team name. Always be at the arena a half-hour before your game time, so that you will be able to go right on the ice when called by your coach or manager. This is your hockey league, so have fun and always be good sportsmen...
Saturday, Nov. 30 is the final deadline for registration in the Little NHL... There are many new adult faces this year as coaches, managers, referees and timekeepers. It is most encouraging to the executive to see so many people interested in the welfare of town and district boys.

SPECIAL BULLETIN... Boys in age group 14 to 16 who wish to play hockey, please report to Herb Arnold at the arena, Sat. Nov. 23 at 9.00 a.m. for registration only.
(Do not bring equipment).
REFEREE-IN-CHIEF Denny Wright has a fine lineup of sportsmen ready to do one of the most important jobs in the league... refereeing. For the NHL he has Paul Marshall, Ken Woods, Charlie Jones, Rod 'Butch' Hyde, David Cooper, Harv Chappel... American League, Ron Breen, Bill Hewitt, Jack King, Blake Baxter, Roy Ward... Junior A, Jack Hamilton, Charlie Tyler, Ormie Carter, John Warren, Bill Hayes, Harold Hiltz, Jack Kemshead, Bud Varey.
Some of these men are also doing coaching jobs in another league besides the refereeing chore... how's that for a community spirit?
The ref-in-chief also mentioned that if all the men who expressed a desire to help really come thru, he will only have to call on them once every three weeks.

POPPY DAY PROCEEDS
EXCEED $500 THIS YEAR
Proceeds from the annual Poppy tag day exceeded $500 on Saturday.
Despite bitterly cold weather, which hampered as full canvassing as the poppy committee wished, a total of $525 has been tallied to date from the poppy sale.
The committee is asking that anyone who might wish to contribute and has not yet done so, turn in their donation this week.

Notice To Creditors

Guelph, Ontario.

FARM NEWS

Kyle Bingham Reappointed to Toronto Milk Board

J. E. W.
Forty shippers out of a total of 230 in District No. 12, Toronto Milk Producers Association, met in Stewarttown Hall for their annual meeting, on November 13th. Such an attendance would appear to indicate that, in general, Toronto milk shippers are satisfied that all is well in the Toronto Milk Market.
Frankly, we can't help but feel that Halton shippers should be more interested in their marketing organization.

President Earl Moore and secretary John Bird had lined up an excellent programme. Numbered among the speakers were president Bowles of the Toronto Milk Producers' Association; Wm. McCorqu-dale, associate check tester; secretary manager John W. Pawley of the Toronto Association, Mr. Harrison, manager of the Co-Op Sit-plus Milk Plant, and Kyle Bingham Halton director on the Toronto Board. Suffice to say, there are problems ahead and with a vote coming up on the formation of a milk marketing agency under the Ontario Farm Products Marketing Act, milk producers would be well advised to get the story from their own officers and directors.

Those elected for the coming year are as follows: President, Earl Moore of Orton; vice president Hugh Beatty of Milton; secretary-treasurer, John M. Bird, Georgetown; Toronto director, Kyle Bingham, Georgetown.
Township directors: Esquesing—Stan Morrison, T. H. McGee, Bruce Nixon; Jim Reid, Jack Ruddell and L. DeVries; Nassagaweya Township
— W. L. Ferguson, Don McKersie, and Lloyd Stokes; Nelson Twp. — J. C. Bell, George Pelletier and Harold Middlebrook; Trafalgar Twp., Sam Finnie, Jack Jarvis, Cliff May, Frank Peacock, and Roy Wilson; South Wellington — Douglas Gray, Gordon Darby, Geo. McAlpine, John Reid and Leslie Swackhamer.

ARROW— HUNTER CHECKS
$6.95

The newest fashions in sport shirts come to you in exciting Hunter Checks. You can pick from the widest selection of colours and patterns anywhere—there's nothing to equal the variety because most Hunter Checks are made and sold than any other sport shirt.

The popularity is only natural. What a beauty the fabric is, soft, luxurious and colorfast. Resists mildew and perspiration odors too and irons like a dream.
Arafold collar has inserts and never wrinkles. Small checks, large checks and a variety of stripes to choose from.
