Over 40 Deer in Tally By Local Hunting Parties

Success of hunting parties from the Georgetown area varied with the weather in northern Ontario this season as many parties were hampered by fog and rainy weather conditions. Still, parties which included local men brought down over 40 of the animals during the open weeks.

One of the largest parties was the one made up of Murt Allison, Nels Robinson, Vern Archer, Bill Ritchie, Art Scott, Don Barrager, Bob Lane, and his brother Wes of Toronto, Elwood Carney, Dunc Robinson, Ken Hearn, Hornby, Don Wingrove, Andy Lang, Hillsburgh, and Jack Perrott of Brampton. Hunting on Manitoulin Island they bagged nine deer.

A group comprised of men from Glen Williams and Georgetown bagged two deer. The men, Don Hancock, Gene Logan, Bob Heston, Don Schenk, Roy Wiggins, Henry Shepherd and Mike Marko did their hunting north of Huntsville.

Bill Garbutt and Jack Davidson were with a party of 6 from Kitchener which took two deer south of Sudbury.

Also arriving home with two deer was a party from Ballinafad, Jack Snow, Sam Snow, Vic Swindhurst, Reg Swindhurst, Roy French, Dick Shortill Jr., Angus McEachern and Art Saunders which hunted in the Martin River district.

One of the most successful groups was the one joined by Harold Smellie of Norval which bagged a full quota of ten deer. It was formed of men from Streetsville, Brampton, Orangeville and Bellwood and hunted at Snow Road near Peterboro.

Jack Crichton with a party from Bracebridge, Hamilton and Toronto, hunted in the Pine Lake district and reported one deer before coming home. Prior to that he joined with Vic Swindhurst in a moose hunt near Ramsey.

Charlie Gibbs and Walter Thompson were with a party from Toronto which bagged five deer at Sprucedale north of Huntsville.

Tom Faram was with a small party from Toronto which included Mr. Wesley Nelson of Amalgamated Electric of Toronto which hunted around Minden near Algonquin Park. They brought back one deer.

Two Hornby men, George and Bill Bailey, were in a party of 11 from Toronto and Milton and reported only minor success after combing the bush near Packsley.

Bob Gudgeon of McClures, his brother and a friend from Brampton joined a group from Parry Sound but had no success at all while hunting near there.

Hunting at Elizabeth Bay on Manitoulin Island a party comprised of Harold Bennett, Jack Harlow, Harold Campbell, Fred Foster, Bob Jepson, George Burt and Bob McMaster and three men from Richmond Hill benefited from the rainy weather which drove the deer to the higher ground. They shot eight and saw many more.

A party of 12 hunters from Erin, Alton and Georgetown also hunting on Manitoulin Island managed only one deer but added a bear as a trophy. One of the Georgetown men, Tom Peavoy, shot the bear. Alfred Seifried was the other local member of the group.

Twenty-One Will Receive St. John Ambulance Cards

Twenty-one people passed their first aid course, including 16 members of Georgetown Volunteer Ambulance Association which sponsored the course recently. The course was instructed by Jack Hunter of the St. John Ambulance Brigade in Guelph and the examining physician was Dr. Alan Thompson.
