McCrae-Sedgwick Vows Exchanged At Kingston
Tall white standards of white shasta mums and two seven tape: candelabra with white candles decorated the First Baptist Church, Kingston, on Saturday, November 30th, when Anita Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sedgwick, Kingston, became the bride of Don Glen McCrae, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. McCrae, Market Street, Georgetown.

Rev. Otis L. Davidson officiated at the double ring ceremony. Mr. Parlane Christie of Kingston was the organist. Mrs. Roy Pett of Willowdale, a former classmate of the bride at Macdonald College, was the soloist, she sang the Wedding Prayer preceding the procession. The Lord's Prayer closing the ceremony and because during the signing of the register.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a traditional gown of Puritan white faille fashioned with an Alecon lace yolk, re-embroidered with baroque pearls. The bouffant hoop crinolined skirt fell into a slight train. A fingertip veil of imported silk illusion fell from a headdress of Alecon lace. She carried a dainty cascade bouquet of pink pinocchio roses and white sweetheart rosebuds. She wore the gift of the groom, a double strand of pearls.

Miss Anne Whyte of Hamilton, a Macdonald classmate of the bride was her maid of honour, Miss Pat Cross of Kingston was the bridesmaid. They were both gowned alike in street length gowns of periwinkle blue silk chiffon over a feta fashioned on princess lines with large fluffy bows at the waist back. Their half-hats were of soft white feathers, their gloves and shoes were white and they carried cascade bouquets of pink carnations. Little Shirley Ferguson of Ottawa, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl, in a rose taffeta floor length dress with bouffant skirt. Her headdress was a band of pink and white carnations and she carried a small white basket of pink carnations and white shasta mums with ribbon streamers of pink and white.

Jim Harrison, a former classmate and roommate at Queen's acted as groomsmen Bill Sproule of Guelph and Gordon Sedgwick, brother of the bride, from Ottawa were ushers. The wedding reception was held in the church hall where Mrs. Sedgwick received for her daughter in a gown of Dior blue twilight crepe, rose accessories and an orchid corsage. She was assisted by the groom's mother who wore a gown of midnight blue peau-de-sue with detailed neckline accented with blush pink and bead trim, a bluish pink feathered hat and navy accessories, with a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Helen Fisk, Guelph, grandmother of the groom was an honoured guest at the bride's table. The toast to the bride was proposed by her uncle, E. K. Bowen, of Toronto.

For their honeymoon in the Laurentians, Montreal and New York the bride chose for travelling a light brown wool tweed sheath dress, brown suede shoes and bay and tangerine hat and gloves.

brown muskrat jacket and corsage of yellow sweetheart roses.

Guests were present from Guelph, Georgetown, London, Toronto, Hamilton, Oshawa, Oakville, Willowdale, Montreal, Ottawa, Gananoque, Thornbury and Kingston. Among the guests were all the boys from Collins House, sixteen of them, with whom the groom had lived while at Queen's University, and five former classmates of the bride's from Macdonald Hall.

The bride was formerly employed as a laboratory technician in the Chemical Laboratory in the CIL Terylene Plant at Milhaven. The groom is a member of the staff of the Livingstone Packaging Company Limited at Tillsonburg. He is also a member of the Livingstone basketball team.

APPOINTED MANAGER: D. B. Wallace, an Acadia University graduate has been appointed manager of the Canadian Pacific Railways department of public relations. He has been assistant manager since the department was formed in 1945. He is a former staff member of the Halifax Chronicle, Canadian Press and Financial Post.
