Businesswomen Have Xmas Party at Cedarvale School

The Business and Professional Women's Club took a Christmas party to the Cedarvale School for Girls on Monday evening in place of having their own regular dinner meeting. Mrs. Andy Crichton and Mrs. John Patterson were in charge of the games and entertainment, while Miss Marion Robinson and Miss Lena McNally were in charge of the lunch.

The evening got off to a good start with everyone joining in a song led by Trudy Belleghen and Rosemary Young, two guests of the Club for the evening. A hilarious assortment of games were enjoyed by both the girls and the members after which presents were presented to each of the girls by the club. An interesting tour of the school was conducted by the pupils. To complete the treat the girls enjoyed do-nuts and chocolate milk.

NORVAL

Cookie House Interesting Display At WI Meeting

Norval Women's Institute met at the home of Mrs. Oliver Hunter for their Christmas meeting with the program appropriately chosen for the season. Roll call was answered with a gift for the Children's Aid Society.

Mrs. Lawrence May presided, with Mrs. Graydon Chester as secretary and after a short business period the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Edward Burke, who in turn called on Mrs. J. Maxwell to demonstrate and explain the "Cookie House". This was indeed a work of art, a beautiful Christmas scene made of cookies, candy and icing.

Mrs. May told a Christmas story which held the interest of the ladies until the very last. Several carols were sung, with Mrs. Hunter at the piano, after which there was an exchange of gifts. Mrs. W. E. Smellie thanked those who had helped to make an interesting afternoon. Lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Lorne Cleave and Mrs. Chester. The January meeting is planned for Jan. 9th at Mrs. May's home.

DAIRYMEN ATTEND TORONTO CONVENTION

Last Wednesday Irwin Noble and two of the staff of Georgetown Dairy, Ltd., Mel Taylor and Les Henderson, attended the convention of the Ontario Milk Producers association at the Royal York Hotel, Toronto.

Their wives joined them later in the day for the family party night which concluded the convention.

Christmas Message, at Home & ... meeting of the school associa- last, Mon Christmas message ed by the members was supplied by a choir of grade 6 pupils, the same choir that captured top honours recently at the Kiwanis Music Festival in Guelph. The message was given by Rev. Alex Calder, minister of Knox Presbyterian Church. Mr. Calder in his talk "Keeping Faith With Christmas" urged that the awe and wonderment of the past be put back in the Day of Rejoicing. The three selections presented by the choir included two Christmas carols and the song they sang at the Kiwanis Festival. Accompanied by music teacher Kenneth R. Harrison the Home and School members joined in singing four Christmas Carols. Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. Mrs. Alistair Macintosh, president of the association, chaired the evening which was attended by 60 members. Mrs. John Esdale is refreshment convenor.
