

XMAS PARTY AT ERIN FOR ALLIANCE STAFF

Hilltop Lodge, Erin, was the scene of much fun, laughter and good food on Saturday evening when the Alliance Paper Mill Staff Association held their annual Christmas party. After enjoying the turkey dinner the group danced to the music of the Glassford Orchestra consisting of Mr. and Mrs. George Glassford and Mr. and Mrs. Earl McPherson. Dancing was interrupted for numerous lucky draws. The winner of the door prize was Bud Tost.

Bahai Followers Have Sunday Conference Here

Mrs. Thomas Ferguson and Mrs. Davina Barber were hostesses to Bahais of Western Ontario at a conference held at the McGibbon Hotel on Sunday afternoon.

The conference was sponsored by the Western Ontario teaching committee of the Bahais of Canada. Speakers were Fred Brada. Speakers were Fred Graman of Niagara Falls and Amy Putnam of Oshweken.

Mr. Graham, principal speaker of the day, recalled God's ancient and eternal covenant with man and pointed out that the only proof which the manifestations of God have presented is their teachings and their personal life of example. He spoke in particular of how Baha'u'llah, the founder of the Bahai World Faith, has done this in our day, establishing for all times the Bahais belief, a covenant between man and God fulfilling past religions and designed to usher in the promised and long-awaited kingdom of God on earth.
