Town Employees Hosts As Golf Club Party

Town employees were hosts on Saturday at North Halton Golf & Country Club at a dinner and dance. They entertained their wives, councillors and wives and a number of contractors who had worked for the town at the party which has been an annual event for several years.

Town foreman Alf Collins and his wife were hosts and Mayor Jack Armstrong acted as chairman for a short program which followed a turkey and roast beef buffet. After speaking about the fine fellowship which the party engenders, he introduced those present in groups, taking each group to sing a song, then called on several to say a few words. These included Reeve Stan Allen and Cr. Harry Hale, who did not seek office this year and will be missing from next year's council table; ex-town clerk John D. Kelly and Assessment Commissioner Joseph Gibbons.

Joe Zealand, Acton provided accordion selections before and during dinner and Doris Hulls' Orchestra played for dancing later. There was a lucky draw for a turkey, which was won by Mrs. Bob Lane.

Municipal employees who attended the party with their escorts included Alf Collins, Bill Walker, Max Kaminsky, Egan Madsen, Sico Vittorina, Duncan McMillan, Herb Robinson, Tom Schenk, Hank Westerveld, Ed. Beerman, Bill Coleman, Clarence Benham, Joseph Gibbons, Jessie Leavitt, Mrs. Thomas Eason, Roy Haley, Jim Bilsborrow and William Carr.

Council members and their wives were all present, Mayor Jack Armstrong, Reeve Stan Allen, Deputy Reeve Doug Sargent and Crs. Garfield McGilvray, Alfred Sykes, Walter Gray, Erna Hyde, Harry Hale and Fred Harrison, and incoming councillors John Elliott and John Gunn.

Other guests included Walter Biehn, Bob Lane, Lionel Hamilton, Rex Heslop, Leonard Ward, Ed Haas, John D. Kelly, Anthony VanTol and their escorts.

SAFETY CONFERENCE ISSUES TRAFFIC SUGGESTIONS

Let's not wait till Christmas to show goodwill towards men, proposes the Canadian Highway Safety Conference.

"Begin right now," the Conference suggests in a pre-Christmas safety appeal directed to all Canadian motorists. "We can show our goodwill by driving with extra care when streets are crowded with holiday traffic."

To prevent accidents which would be especially tragic at this season, the Conference issues these five safety rules which, if followed, could practically end the traditional holiday accident toll.

1. If you are at all likely to drink at holiday parties, travel to and from them in street car, bus or taxi, and not in your own car.
2. Refuse a lift from anyone who has been drinking. What is more, try to persuade him from driving.
3. At the end of the evening a cup of coffee will help to keep you alert on the way home.
4. Realize that the holiday rush is not for the wise driver. Instead of rushing, the careful driver slows down and recollects that traffic laws are made for his protection.
5. On holiday trips, don't wait until you are drowsy before stopping for a coffee-break. When you are dead tired, draw over to the side of the road, sleep is your only restorative.

Concerts, White Gift Service at St. John's

Over 300 members of St. John's United Church Sunday School took part in the annual Christmas concerts on Wednesday and Thursday of last week. The story of the birth of Christ was portrayed by recitations, action songs, shadow plays, piano and cornet solos, plays and pageantry.

Those in charge of classes in the first concert included Gord Padfield, Hilda Boyes, Mrs. Gordon King, Sandra Scott, Jack Runham, Mrs. Vera McCumber, Marilyn Souther, Mrs. Bernard Shrubsole, William Kinrade and Graham Farnell. Second night—Flora Alcott, Mrs. Harvey Chappel, Mrs. Reg. Broomhead, Toni Lee, Mrs. Ken Richardson, Mrs. Walter Henrich, Mrs. Earl Lince, Mrs. Dave Wood, Mrs. Robert Allen, Marilyn Heslop, Mrs. Ernest Forgrave, Mrs. George Grasby.

Piano accompanists — Margaret McFarlane, Mrs. James F. Evans, Mrs. H. C. Wrigglesworth.

At the close of each concert a visit from Santa was enjoyed by all and especially by the children when they each received a gift of a bag of candy and an orange. Once again the big nights have come and gone, but memories will live through the years in the hearts of some very young people and their parents. The thrill that comes to a child in taking a part however small in a Sunday School concert is a milestone in life that years cannot erase.

Sooner or later most people learn that although it is pleasant to receive gifts it is also an experience of lasting pleasure to give something to others. At the annual White Gift Service held in the Sunday School on Sunday, 400 pounds of food, clothing and toys were donated by the children to be distributed to needy people by the Fred Victor Mission in Toronto. The sincerity of the children's desire to participate in this act of giving was indicated by those who had not brought a gift as to whether it could be given the following Sunday. In order that all may share in the project the shipment will be delayed until after this Sunday.
