LOCAL LADIES ATTEND
PEARSON DINNER IN CITY

Misses Jean and Margery MacKenzie, 38 Mill Street, were among 1800 people who attended a testimonial dinner in Toronto Thursday honouring Hon. Lester B. Pearson, who has received the Nobel Peace Prize this year.

The dinner was tendered by the Canadian Institute of International Affairs at the Queen Elizabeth Building, CNE and was attended by dignitaries of church and state as well as members of the institute.

A former Georgetown, Dr. Lloyd Thompson and his wife of Peterborough were among the guests, as was another former district resident, John Watkins, former Canadian ambassador to Russia.

The W.I. catered for a turkey dinner for the staffs and employees of Grand Union Stores of Acton and Georgetown in the Hall on Saturday evening.

Your correspondent wishes all those at the Herald office a Very Merry Christmas.

Merry Christmas

AS CHEERY AND BRIGHT as a Christmas candle, is our Yuletide wish for you and yours. May the holiday season be all aglow with a deep and abiding happiness for you all.

Senior Citizens Attend
Rotary Christmas Dinner

For the third consecutive year, the Rotary Club of Georgetown has held a dinner in honour of the Senior Citizens of the community. This year the dinner was held Monday, December 16th, at Knox Presbyterian Hall.

By far the biggest crowd to ever attend sat down to a delicious roast turkey dinner with all the trimmings. The meal was provided by the wives of the Rotarians, the Rotary-Annes.

After the meal, President Bill Carr welcomed the guests, and said that he hoped to see many more such occasions in the future. He then called on Bill MacCormack to take over as M/C for the entertainment portion of the evening. A number of songs, reminiscent of the Christmas season were sung by the group, plus a few old favourites.

The next item was an illustration of stereophonic sound, given by Dr. Joe Chamberlain and Bill Carr. This showed how realistic every day sounds can be when played in this fashion. A favourite of the gathering from last year, was back again to please, in the person of Sandra Sproule. Miss Sproule sang very beautifully, "Holy Night" and "White Christmas." Miss Sproule was followed by Al Berthiaume, who amazed his audience with his feats of magic and sleight of hand. His performance was indeed appreciated by all present.

No Christmas party of course, would be complete without a visit from Santa Claus, and this was the case Monday night. But as an innovation, Santa (due we suspect to some Scottish ancestry) arrived to the skirl of bagpipes, as well as the sound of sleigh bells. Santa distributed gifts to the ladies and gentlemen present, assisted by members of the Rotary.

In conclusion, Bill Carr, called on Fred McNally for a few re-

LIMEHOUSE
TEACHERS DIRECT ANNUAL
XMAS CONCERT AT SCHOOL

The Wm. Edwards spent last week-end at Fort Erie.

Deputy Reeve C. Sinclair councillor W. Linham and assessment commissioner A. W. Benton attended Reeve George Currie's Christmas dinner at Hawthorne Lodge, Milton on Wednesday evening.

The Hall was well filled for the S.S. No. 9 annual Christmas concert directed by teachers Mrs. McKay and Miss Quinton on Thursday evening. The program was appreciated from little Teddy Brown's recitation of welcome through humorous and solemn drills, dialogues, songs and recitations to see Beth Karn's solo of "Good Night." Santa of course visited at the end to distribute gifts, oranges and candies. Mr. Fred Brooks was chairman.

The parents' association of S.S. No. 9 sponsored a euvre in the hall on December 14th when eight tables were played and lunch was served at the close. Mr. Fred Brooks won the turkey draw. First prizes for cards went to Mr. Burley and Mrs. Clare Wilson seconds to Mr. Joe McDonald, and Billie Wilson tied, and Audrey Wilson, and consolations to Mr. C. Cross and Miss Quinton.

The W.I. catered for a turkey dinner for the staffs and employees of Grand Union Stores of Acton and Georgetown in the Hall on Saturday evening.

Your correspondent wishes all those at the Herald office a Very Merry Christmas.

ENGAGEMENTS
