STEWARTTOWN

St. John's Church choir travelled to Brampton to sing with the combined choirs for Christmas music.

We were all shocked to know that Jack Jenkinson who used to live in Stewarttown with his family had passed away last Thursday. Sympathy is extended to the family.

Visitors with Mrs. Baily over the Christmas season were Mr. and Mrs. Edward Baily of Toronto. Also Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Baily with Dawn and Stephen from North Bay.

The children have had a good time at skating during the Christmas holidays.

We regret to know that Miss Elizabeth Appelbe is sick just now and hope she will soon be better. A happy birthday to Kenneth Hodge who will be 12 years next Saturday.

Two New Year's Calls But Little Fire Damage

Little damage resulted from a fire New Year's day at the home of Ray Bowers, William St. Firemen were called to the house when wainscoting in back of a kitchen gas stove broke into flames.

The blaze was put out immediately, limiting damage to the wainscoting and a charred portion of the wall above the stove.

The call was received at 11:30 a.m. On a second alarm at 4:20 p.m. the brigade did not get beyond the front doors of the station. Summoned to 19 Gibbons Pl., the firemen were just leaving when the party called back to halt the trucks, explaining that the fire had been quickly put out and that their assistance would not be needed.

Two Car Accidents At Silvercreek

The Milton detachment OPP investigated two accidents near here last week, both occurring at Silvercreek on No. 7 Highway.

Approximately $300 damage resulted from the first mishap which involved cars driven by Francis Bonneville, 1034 West Ave., Lakeview and Julian Zajac, 266 Peel St., Acton, at 3:20 a.m. last Wednesday morning. The condition of the road at the time of the collision was described as slippery. The damage was divided $50 to the Bonneville vehicle and $150 to the Zajac car, and the investigating officer was Cst. Ray Andrews.

Cst. Roy Hazlett investigated a rear end collision at Silvercreek on Friday at 5 p.m. in which the damage was estimated at $300. The drivers, Frank Edward Swift of R.R. 1 Acton and Reginald Hoare of 291 Arthur St., Acton, were uninjured.

Industry & Chiropractic

Spinal injuries are one of the commonest causes of time loss and pay loss in industry. In order to assess the efficiency of the chiropractic management of these cases, utilizing the files of compensation boards and insurance Cos., the results proved conclusively that chiropractic care for low back has no equal and can be of tremendous benefit in reducing the lost man hours and lost wages suffered by those afflicted with this painful condition.

The figures in the industrial survey was limited to a study of low back conditions treated by three methods: chiropractic, osteopathy and medicine. The figures are taken from files of compensation boards, etc. in 44 states of the USA and Canada. In all 4,746 cases were studied, comparison of average cost of workman's compensation.

Norval Hockey Juniors Tied for Second Place

Norval Junior Farmers pulled in to a two way tie for second place on Monday, December 30th, downing the Milton team 4 to 2. The loss kept Milton from sticking with Palermo which moved into sole possession of first place by edging Acton in the second game.

A goal by Bill Richardson set up by Don Smith proved to be the winner for the Norvalites. Richardson later added the insurance goal after taking a pass from Dave Cunningham. Dunc Robinson from Lakeview and Fred Barnes, and Don Hearns from Earl Wilson and Fred Barnes were the other contributors. Earl Wilson and Don Johnson from Ron Tasker and McCann scored for Milton.

Norval was at full strength for the entire three periods, the only penalties in the game being drawn by Milton, A. Havden for tripping and Murray Tasker for charging. After 7 starts Norval has a 4 and three record and now trails Palermo by a single game. The starting time was at 8:15.

A tally by Dave Murray late in the other game was the back breaker for Acton who came within an eighth of upsetting the league leaders. Don Vivian and Bob Marshall got credit for setting up the big one. Vivian was in on all five of the Palermo tally spiking up 2 goals and 3 assists. Dave Murray and Bob Marshall were the other marksmen.

Don Lawson, Mervin Hunter, Ron Archer, and J. Cunningham each counted once for Acton. The standings as of Dec. 30th are:

	G	W	L	T	Pts.
Palermo	7	5	2	0	10
Milton	7	4	3	0	8
Norval	7	4	3	0	8
Acton	7	1	6	0	2
