RAISE CUB FLAG MONEY BY SELLING CORSAGES

Boys of 2nd, 1st Georgetown Cubs had an ambitious project during the Christmas season when they undertook to raise funds to purchase a flag and equipment by selling Christmas corsages.

The cubs had a generous assist from Mrs. Joe McConkey, 28 Norton Crescent, wife of the cubmaster, who made the corsages which they sold for 25c each. A total of $55 was raised by the boys, ample to buy a handsome flag. They appreciate the reception given them at the homes where they called.

MOTORISTS

When you apply for 1958 licence plates...

...you must show proof of Liability Insurance...

If you do not have this Liability Insurance Certificate, phone your insurance company or agent today.

...or pay $5.00 EXTRA into the Unsatisfied Judgment Fund

Here's why: The additional $5.00 fee to be paid by motorists without Liability coverage is made necessary because of the new increased maximum payments available from the Unsatisfied Judgment Fund. The Fund was established by the Government to help pay judgments arising out of accidents involving uninsured motor vehicles. Drivers of such vehicles must repay the full amount of the judgment to the Fund.

If you do not have Liability Insurance, and are involved in an accident, you could lose everything you own. Should a judgment be made against you, and you do not have Liability Insurance or other means of meeting it, you could lose your home, your motor vehicle, your savings and a large part of your future earnings to meet the judgment.

LIABILITY INSURANCE is your protection against legal obligations arising from accidents involving injury, death or damage to property of others. A policy for Fire, Theft and Collision is NOT Liability Insurance.

The additional $5.00 payment is NOT a substitute for Liability Insurance

See your insurance company or agent today and make sure you have Liability Insurance on your vehicle

Mr. and Mrs. Ryerson Douglas Entertain, 25th Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Ryerson Douglas held open house on December 21st at their home, 258 Dawlish Ave., Toronto to celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Douglas is the former Aileen Moore, daughter of a former Herald publisher, the late Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Moore. They were married at the Moore home, now the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Townend, 7 Park Ave. Mr. Douglas, a former teacher at Northern Vocational School now operates a brokerage business with offices in Toronto and New York City. Their children John and Elaine are both students at the University of Toronto, John in his fourth year and Elaine a freshman. Their wedding attendants, Dr. Lennox Douglas, Galt and Mrs. Jack Squires, Kitchener, were present with them for the day. Georgetown guests included Miss Charlotte McCullough, R.R. 1 and Misses Jean and Margery Mackenzie, 36 Mill St.

JUNIOR GOLFERS HAVE GAY NEW YEAR'S DANCE

New Year's Eve came twenty-four hours earlier for some 30 young couples who attended a pre-New Year's dance party at the North Halton Golf and Country Club on December 30. The dance put on by the junior golfers, was the fourth straight success for the young organization, and continued to encourage the executive since each dance has been a little bit better than the one before. The

BUDDING LILACS ADD UNSEASONABLE TOUCH

A freak example of the recent displaced warm spell that possessed the province during December was brought to the Herald last week in the form of a budding lilac branch. The branch, contributed by Mrs. Cecil Ford, 24 Victoria Cresc. can be added to a long list of recent unseasonable reports including grass fire, golf games, budding crocuses and a flock of migrating geese which waited until late December before being dissatisfied with the climate.

Dedicate Church Gifts To Archdeacons Memory

In memory of a rector who served St. George's Anglican Church for almost 25 years, a silver chalice and paten were dedicated at the evening church service on December 22nd.

Rev. Kenneth Richardson spoke of the faithful service of the late Archdeacon W. G. O. Thompson and said the gift from the congregation was a small token of the love and affection which he holds in their hearts.

Other gifts to the church were dedicated at the same time, including a number of hymn books placed by Rudy Meier in memory of his mother, Alice Ida Meier.

On Christmas day, two cruets, a white burse and veil were dedicated to the Archdeacon's memory at St. Alban's Church, Glen Williams. These were presented to the church by the Canon Wallace Junior Guild.

PERFECT MUSIC THEORY MARKS FOR PUPILS

Two pupils of Mrs. Dorothy Richardson Scull received perfect marks when they tried their theory examinations a short time ago. Suzanne Adams of Acton tried grade one and Gloria Jean Hall, Guelph, grade four. Both girls received a mark of one hundred per cent. The examinations were taken at the Georgetown Branch of the Trinity College of Music, London, England and the awards were presented at the Acton Christmas recital.

MILL CHRISTMAS PARTY

A gift exchange featured the Christmas party of employees of Beaumont Knitting Co. which was held after work on the Friday before Christmas.

Could you and your family live out of a suit case?

Not a bright prospect. But many families have to. For they discover too late that their fire insurance isn't enough to cover today's cost of rebuilding and refurbishing a burned-out home. Now is the time to bring your fire insurance up to date. See us.
