YEAR'S WORK REVIEWED BY AMBULANCE VOLUNTEERS

Ernie Forgrave, 14 Union St., and Al Prouse, 11 Margaret St., were appointed as nominating committee by the members of the Georgetown Volunteer ambulance service last Thursday evening when the association met in the Wrigglesworth public school. The committee will present a new slate of officers for the members' approval prior to or at the next regular meeting, Feb. 6th.

Following the welcoming remarks of chief Ed Hall the minutes were read by the secretary, John Henley, to open the meeting and a report covering the first year of operation was presented to the members.

Lieut. Keith Macdonald reported on the county civil defence meeting in Oakville which he had recently attended representing GVAS. Ernie Forgrave extended a vote of thanks to the present executive for their past work, and for offering to carry on in their respective positions until the new officers are installed.
