

Re-Elect Jack Harlow
Chief of Fire Dept.

Georgetown and Esqueping township councils and the full membership of firemen were on hand at the municipal fire hall auditorium Sunday, January 8th, when Jack Harlow, 19 Union St., was returned as chief of the 25-man department. This is the second straight year that Mr. Harlow has been chosen to head the brigade taking over last year from William Hyde who had held the job for five years. An employee of Smith & Stone Ltd., Mr. Harlow was the deputy-chief during Mr. Hyde's term of office. Re-elected deputy-chief at the meeting was J. A. (Andy) Ritchie.

Mayor Jack Armstrong, who was asked to chair the meeting said the firemen are constantly complimented by town and township residents, not only for the work they do in fighting fires, but for a great number of services they do in the community including their aid with the Santa Claus parade.

Mayor Armstrong described the department as not only the best in Halton County but the finest in the Dominion.

Others who spoke briefly in tributing the brigade, included Campbell Sinclair, Esqueping Deputy-Reeve, Wilfrid Bird, Esqueping councillor and Past Chief Harry Savings who acted as scrutineer along with past fireman Bob Footitt. Chairman of the town council fire committee, Cr. Alfred Sykes, was secretary.

Also elected to office were: Jack Davidson, treasurer; Clarence Spence, secretary; Bob Bonfield, Capt. No. 1 Company; Dave Williams, Capt. No. 2 Company; Charles (Jimmy) Valentine, Lieut. No. 1; Erwin Lewis, Lieut. No. 2; John Cunningham, Capt. Hook & Ladders; Bill Ritchie, Driver No. 1 Unit; Ralph Blood, Driver No. 2 Unit; Herb Roshier, Driver township truck; Charles Laws, Driver panel truck.

TERRA COTTA

SCOTTISH LIFE, CUSTOMS DESCRIBED FOR INSTITUTE

The guest speaker at the regular January meeting of Terra Cotta W.I. was Mrs. McIveen who spoke to the members on Scotland, the life and customs, and displayed pictures and knitting from that country. A number of Robert Burns poems recited by Mrs. McIveen were also much enjoyed.

The meeting was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. F. Sharpe with Mrs. C. G. Bishop and Mrs. A. McDonald acting as assistant hostesses and Mrs. J. McDonald, scout. Mrs. McDonald also gave a paper which she had prepared on citizenship, the theme for the meeting.

The roll call was responded to by the ladies in turn, modelling the oldest hat they could find and was the source of more than a few smiles. Mrs. George Frazer conducted a contest and Mrs. J. McCullough read the motto "A backward glance may impart courage to go forward."

It was decided during the business portion that next month's meeting be held in the form of a bowling party. Mrs. H. Clark is in charge of this. A euchre is also being planned for sometime in the near future. Mrs. Joe Eason offered a vote of thanks to the hostess and all who aided in the program.

Mr. & Mrs. Thos. Storey Celebrate 50th Year

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Storey, Rockwood, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on December 26th.

The Storeys lived for many years on a farm in Nassagaweya Township, 6th Line, Lot 23. They have been in Rockwood for 6 years.

They were married in Acton at the home of Mrs. Storey's father, James Brown by the Rev. J. C. Wilson, minister of Knox Presbyterian Church. Mrs. Storey's sister, Mrs. Alice McCullough, who was bridesmaid at the wedding, was with them to celebrate their anniversary. Their groomsmen, R. A. Storey is no longer living.

The couple have six children, Mrs. Andy Frank, Campbellville; Mrs. Ray Marshall, Fergus; Mrs. Howard Hube, 18 Bairdow Crée, Georgetown; Mrs. Reg. Hallman, Kitchener; Melvin, Campbellville and Max of Rockwood. They have nineteen grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Mr. Storey's ancestors settled early in Nassagaweya. The first, Max Storey, lived on the present Harace Blyth farm.

Besides greetings from a host of friends and relatives, there were messages from Prime Minister Dieffenbacher and Alfred Hales, Member of Parliament for South Wellington.
