The funeral service was held on Saturday at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home, 34 Edith St. Georgetown. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery.

MEMORIALS
BLYTH-MARLOW — In loving memory of a dear mother, Selena Blyth Marlow, who passed away January 24th, 1955.
She left some beautiful memories, a sorrow too great to be told; But to those who loved and lost her,
Her memory will never grow old — Ever remembered by daughter Elsie Gibbs, Bill and boys.

TIMPSON — In loving memory of our dear wee Robert John (Jackie), who passed away January 22nd, 1957, in his third year.
Two little hands are resting, A little heart is still; A little son we loved is waiting For us just over the hill.
— Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by Mommie and Daddy.

CARDS OF THANKS
BROWN — I would like to thank Dr. Thompson, our friends and neighbours, also Verdun Rebekah Lodge for their help and kindness since my recent accident.— Barbara Brown.

INGLIS — We wish to extend our sincere thanks to all our friends and neighbours and to the members of St. Alban's Guild who remembered us with cards and flowers and expressions of kindness during our recent illness and since returning home. — Mary, Lynne and Shirley Inglis.

MATTHEWS — I would like to thank my son Tony, my good friends and neighbours, especially Mr. Bert Hill and Mr. Win Davis for helping me move while Mr. Matthews was away. — Elsie Matthews, Glen Williams

HORNBY
EMMANUEL COLLEGE PROF. CONDUCTS CHURCH SERVICE
Prof. George McMullen of St. McMillen of Emmanuel College, Toronto, spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Brown. Prof. McMullen conducted the communion services at Hornby, Ashgrove and Bethel United Churches.

Ten members of the Hornby W.A. attended the Leadership Training School at Bethel United Church on January 13th. There were approximately seventy ladies present from the Halton Presbytery. Everyone enjoyed the pot luck dinner that was provided by the ladies. The session was well organized under the very capable leaders. Everyone went home feeling the time spent was worthwhile. Mrs. Swinton closed the meeting with a prayer.
The president, Mrs. Hazel Reid opened the evening group of the Hornby W.A., leading in the theme song. The scripture was read, a story was told and a prayer was repeated. The last minute plans for their first banquet were made. A hymn was sung and Mrs. Reid closed the meeting with the theme prayer. Mrs. Bertha Greston served lunch.

JOHN CALBECK JOINS HIGH SCHOOL STAFF
John A. Calbeck, joined the local high school staff on Monday. He replaces Mrs. G. Emmerson, a staff member since September who resigned her position the end of the year.
Mr. Calbeck, a native of Dunnville, is a graduate of Trinity College, University of Toronto and the Ont. College of Education. He formerly taught at Brantford Collegiate and has been working in Toronto at the Dept. of Education for the past year. Unmarried, he is boarding at the home of Mrs. Sam Walker, 20 George St. He is teaching Grade 12 history, and English, geography and Latin in the lower grades of the school.
It is a coincidence that his new home is in a town where his father lived as a child. His grandfather, a plumber worked in town in the early years of the century, later opening his own plumbing business in Dunnville.

TOBOGGAN PARTY FOR JUNIOR SCHOOL CHILDREN
Miss Quinton's Junior room pupils enjoyed a tobogganing party and hot dog lunch on the Riddell farm last Friday. The seniors and Mrs. McKay held their week previously.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A. Lofrenck during last week-end were the Nick de Rooy's of Port Dalhousie; the Dirk Kloosters of Erin and the Henry Kloosters of Glen Williams.
Mrs. Charles James had her mother, Mrs. Temple and brother, Alex Temple of Hamilton with her last week-end.

The WMS met at the home of Mrs. A. C. Patterson on Thursday evening with twelve attending. Miss Quinton read Scripture and Mrs. Crichton led in prayer. A letter received by Mrs. R. Patterson from Mrs. Dickson, a missionary in Formosa, which told of work there was read by the secretary. Text word answered in a verse of Scripture was "comfort."
Miss Quinton obliged with piano accompaniment numbers and accompanied the hymns. Mrs. A. W. Benton reviewed the story of Dr. Kate by Adele Comandini. A number paid their annual membership fees. The treasurer reported the annual financial objective in 1957 had been met. Following the Lord's Prayer the hostess served lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Spitzer, Mr. and Mrs. R. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. Spitzer, Mr. and Mrs. B. Spitzer, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meredith, Mr. and Mrs. J. Roughley, Mrs. E. Sanford, and Bill Sanford were guests at the Ewen - Spitzer wedding and reception at Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, on Saturday.

INSTITUTE SPONSORS SPEAKING AID COURSE
Mrs. L. May, Norval Women's Institute president, opened her home for the January meeting. Roll call was "My duty as a Citizen." The topic of the afternoon was citizenship and committee in charge was Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Wilson. Mrs. H. Smellie gave the motto "Be the Best of Whatever You Are" and Mrs. Collins had an interesting paper on what makes a good citizen.
Mrs. May reminded the ladies of the short course held in Norval United Church on January 16th on "Aids to Effective Speaking". This was sponsored by the institute and a pot luck supper was served at noon. A lamp shade project is also planned for Stewarttown hall on January 28th at 1.30 p.m.

A social half hour followed the meeting with Mrs. Smellie and Mrs. Burke assisting the hostess.

KNOX CHURCH HOST FOR WEEK OF PRAYER
The week of prayer was celebrated in Georgetown with a service held in Knox Church for all congregations sponsored by the Georgetown Ministerial Association.

Rev. Alex Calder conducted the service and there was special music by the Knox Church choir. Rev. Alfred Barker preached the sermon, talking of his experiences and connecting them with the Ephipany thought of light shining through into the darkness. The service was held Wednesday evening, January 8th at eight o'clock.

CORRECTION
In a list of the leading scorers of the Junior Raider hockey team on page 2 of the second section the name of Fred Harrison was omitted by error. Harrison's name should have been second in the standing which did not include last night's game. After eight starts he had 8 goals, 5 assists for 13 points and 15 minutes in penalties. Last night he pipped up another goal and three more assists as Georgetown Jr. Raiders thumped the league leading Brooklin Combines 6 to 3.
