GLEN WILLIAMS

Sanctuary Decorating Main Undertaking in Glen Church

The annual congregational meeting of Glen Williams United Church was held following a pot luck luncheon on January 18th. Rev. W. Edgar Gill acted as the chairman and Mrs. Cecil Barth as secretary.

Financial reports were given by Herb Hancock, treasurer of the board of stewards; Missionary and Maintenance by Mrs. Barth; Sunday School by Bert Dixon; Couples Club by Mrs. John Wagstaffe; W.A. by Mrs. Bert Dixon and flower committee by Mrs. Bert Bullock. Juniors Beat Unionville 6-4 on Unionville Ice

The Junior Raiders moved into a seventh place tie with Unionville in the Suburban Super Eight standing on Tues., Feb. 11 by downing the Jets 6 to 4 on their home ice.

The J.R.s had to come from behind to get the win scoring three times in the last ten minutes after the Jets had wrestled the lead away from the locals at the start of the period. There was no scoring in the first frame, the Junior Raiders held a 2-1 edge at the end of the second, extended to 3-1 when Pomeroy tallied just before the Jets started their scoring spree.

Doug Richardson rocketed back to the top scoring heap by scoring three goals and assisting on another. Pomeroy, Ward and Baxter were the other marksmen. Bob Cox turned in his best effort so far and registered four assists.

Thornington picked up two of the Unionville total, Jarvis and Jennings added singles.

Holden at 3:50, Jarvis got the equalizer from Holden at 7:52 and Thornington from Jennings and Haynes jumped Unionville into a 4-3 lead at the 8-42 mark.

The key goal of the game was Baxter's tying tally at 10:15. What little spark there was left in the Georgetown attack broke back into flame as soon as the rubber hit the Unionville twine and from there on out the Jets were grounded. Richardson and Cox got the assists.

Richardson completed his hat trick by notching the winner on a pass from Pomeroy at 14:48 and then piling on the insurance less than a minute later. Dance picked up the assist.

Georgetown again had the most shots on goal, 17 to 12 and ended up with a ten shot spread, 44 to 34. Unionville gets a chance to even the score when they play back here on Friday, February 21.
