Dear Sir:
A statement printed in the Toronto Daily Star on Thursday gave comparative figures of the differences in pay received by the Ontario Provincial Police, liquor

HORNBY

ERNEST LINDSAY WAS RURAL MAIL CARRIER

Mr. Ernest Lindsay former resident and rural carrier passed away in Brampton hospital last week.

The Evening group of Hornby W.A. held their monthly meeting in the church basement on Monday, March 3rd with sixteen members present.

The president, Mrs. Hazel Reid opened the meeting with the theme song and the Lord's prayer was said in unison. The secretary, Mrs. Pat Southwood read the minutes of the last meeting. The treasurer's report was given by Mrs. Betty Death. Mrs. Southwood then read the scripture, a story and led in prayer.

The banquet committee gave their report on the coming banquet on March 7th. After the meeting Mrs. Frank Chisholm gave a demonstration on plastics that proved very interesting to all. Mrs. Ruth Bousfield thanked Mrs. Chisholm for coming to the meeting and giving of her time and talent.

Coffee and sandwiches were served by Mrs. Florence May.

The WMS and afternoon group of the Hornby W.A. held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. A. King.

Mrs. G. Sinclair, president opened the WMS with the singing of a hymn. The secretary, Mrs. C. Wigglesworth read the minutes of the last meeting. The roll call was answered by the sixteen members present. The thankoffering envelopes were distributed. The ninth line group was in charge of the program. The WMS closed with the Lord's Prayer.

Mrs. Doug Leslie, president, opened the W.A. with the theme song. Mrs. M. Brown, secretary read the minutes of the last meeting and the correspondence. The committee in charge of the recipe booklet gave their report. The banquet committee gave their report on the coming banquet. It was decided to order some boxes of cards to be sold. Everyone was reminded to attend the general meeting on March 19th. The meeting closed with the singing of a hymn and prayer. The hostess assisted by Mrs. M. Brown and Mrs. C. Browne served an enjoyable lunch.

The Hornby L.O.L. 165 held another successful euchre and dance at the Orange Hall on Friday, March 7th.

There were seventeen tables of euchre and thirteen games were played.

After lunch the euchre prizes were given to Mrs. R. Waldie with the high score and Mr. George Foster with the low score for the ladies. The men's high was won by Mr. Robert Lane and Glenn Saunders for the low score.

Three lucky door prizes were given to Mrs. George Bailey, Alice Whitehead and Bette Brooks. Their cards were drawn by Patsy Wilson, Nancy Robertson and Paul Thompson.

The ice fishermen had a little better luck this week-end, when they caught nine whitefish.

Birthday greetings to little Miss Susan Bradley who will be two years old on March 12th, to Pat Flippance who has a birthday on St. Patrick's Day, to Grant Lee on March 16th.

Mrs. Howard Bradley returned home on Monday after her trip to Peoria, Illinois.

The Hornby Community Park Board held a meeting Thursday evening, March 6th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Howden.

Mrs. Garnet Howden and Dave Leslie attended the meeting being members of the executive of the Hornby ball clubs. Plans for further park development were made for the coming year.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Saunders, who will celebrate their fortieth (40th) wedding anniversary on March 14th.

Several residents have been on the sick list. Mr. J. A. M. Taylor, is now at home after two weeks in the Toronto Western Hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bridgen and Mr. Edward Bridgen have all been confined to bed with the flu. Miss Peggy Lee has scarletina and Harry Robertson had the misfortune of falling in the gym of Oakville hospital.

The newly made bicycle stands, lunch tables and benches have been placed in the Hornby school yard for the children to use as soon as spring arrives.

Mrs. Fred Wigglesworth, who was eighty years old on March 6 was the guest of honour at a family dinner on Sunday, March 9th at the home of her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wigglesworth. There were sixteen present at the dinner.

store employees and school teachers.

The Ontario government reports show that for this year the attorney general's department is budgeting roughly for $7,200,000 for 1740 provincial police, making an average salary of $4,100 for the officers.

Figures quoted for the teachers represented what was paid in 1956 and not 1958. It is presumed the figures for liquor control board employees were also for 1956.

I am certainly in favour of teachers receiving fair remuneration for their services, the median salaries $3100 a year and for rural elementary teachers $1700 a year certainly are not impressive.

We trust our children and to a large extent their welfare to the teaching profession and their pay should be commensurate for the duties they perform. A good teacher can mould the life of the student to reflect creditably all through his lifetime. This should not be forgotten.

In the case of the police, whether OPP or municipal, I have always felt they were grossly underpaid.

We commit to them the safety of our lives, our property, expect and receive from them every possible service at all hours of day or night in calm or wildest storm and not restricted to a 40 hour week!

Their duties, in the main, are not carried out in a comfortable building and restricted to well-defined hours, but rather, as public servants, on call 24 hours a day. Along with this, they are generally concerned with public welfare projects that consume most of their few offtime hours, and give notable leadership to programs especially helpful to youth and teenagers which goes a long way in eliminating juvenile delinquency.

Policing today is not what it was even a few years ago. Then, if an officer ran into trouble against gangs of other odds he could depend on the assistance of witnesses to his predicament. Today that is not the case. We read in the press where officers have received severe injuries when outnumbered by hoodlums and law-breakers and have had to be hospitalized as the result of a melee in which they were trying to carry out their duties and for which they received no assistance from the onlookers.

There are some who may criticize or say the officers takes the job knowing what it may involve, but let us remember that someone has to take the job regardless of what it entails.

It is high time we got a proper perspective of what our police protection should mean to us individually and collectively and see too it that the remuneration our police receive befits the duties they perform.

Yours truly,
Ed A. Peters

CRITICIZES TORIES ON BANKING POLICIES

Speaking over radio station CHWO Oakville on Monday, Geo. Jackson of Milton, commenting for the Halton Liberal Association and candidate Ken Dick, lashed out at Sandy Bost and the Tory party for their interference with the Bank of Canada and its policies. Mr. Jackson said if they start tinkering with our monetary system it could lead to other such measures as interfering with the supreme court.

He called upon Conservatives to repudiate their party's actions and to back the Liberal policy which has given Canada such good government for so many years.
