IRISH THEME, CHURCH W.A. MARCH MEETING

Mrs. Ian Ritchie, 7 Orchard Blvd. opened her home for the March meeting of Group 3 of the W.A. of St. John's United Church, Mrs. J. Kirkwood presided and opened with the theme hymn and prayer. Miss Hazel Harrison led in the devotional period, reading Kings 19:1-18 as the scripture lesson on the theme "God Talking." We do not expect to hear God's voice talking aloud, she said, but he does speak. In the quietness he will speak and if we will "be still" we will hear. He will speak comfort and strength urging or restraining, as our need is.

It was decided to continue with sewing, and material for aprons was displayed and distributed. An Irish theme prevailed in roll call and program. Mrs. S. Gowland read a humorous story "Paddy Stole the Rope" and Mrs. W. Brownridge an account of St. Patrick's missionary work which is not so well known as humorous stories about him. McKane in the chair, and opening the meeting with the Institute Ode followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The roll call "name a weed or an insect and its control," was answered by 18 members.

The motto "Pray to God for a good harvest but continue to hoe" was taken by Mrs. Lloyd Crichton and Mrs. Art McKane thanked Mrs. D. Clark and Mrs. G.
