

Provincial Paper Man Was 2nd War Veteran

After an illness of over two years, Charles Henry Boyle died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Guelph, on Thursday, April 17th, 1958 in his forty-seventh year. Mr. Boyle, born in Glasgow, Scotland, came to Waterdown, New York, with his father in 1920 where he lived until the outbreak of the second World War when he came to Georgetown and enlisted with the Hamilton Light Infantry, going overseas with that unit.

During the war while overseas he met and married Sheila Haughey and he brought her to Canada at the conclusion of the war. They made their home at 38 Normandy Blvd. and he was employed at the Provincial Paper Mills until the time of his illness. He is survived by his wife and brothers and sisters, James and John of Georgetown, Mary Gillivet and Jean Stewart, both of New Toronto, Margaret McCarthy, Detroit, Mich., Kathleen Holmes, Acton and the Rev. Mother Barbara of Toronto. His parents predeceased him several years ago.

Requiem high mass was sung in Holy Cross R.C. Church on Saturday, April 19th at 10 a.m. by Father Thomas Van Laer of this parish, Father V. J. Morgan from Acton, Father McDougall from Guelph and Father Paul Switalski from New Toronto. Pallbearers were Ross Boyle, Bill Dwyer, Frank Connely, John Stewart, Larry McCarthy and Bernard Gillivet. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown. On Friday evening members of the Canadian Legion held their memorial service at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home.

Boar's Head, Haggis Features Army Dance

Last Friday evening Brampton armories was the scene of the annual Easter Ball of the officers' mess, of the Lorne Scots. As always there was a large number of officers and guests at this party, with the building beautifully decorated with streamers and flowers. Furniture had been moved in for the evening, giving the effect of a huge country club, with chesterfields and easy chairs for the guests. Adding to the color of the evening was the fact that the order of dress was either uniform or formal evening and this in itself made a lovely scene.

The colonel of the regiment, Lt. Col. Arthur Kemp and Mrs. Kemp received the guests assisted by his second-in-command, Major E. J. (Ted) Conover and Mrs. Conover. Present also was Brigadier Michael Dunn, OBE, of Central Command, and a number of his officers, and Col. Hamish Macintosh, the commanding officer of the 48th Highlanders of Canada. The ball featured many Scottish dances, performed by the officers and ladies of the Lorne Scots and visiting officers of Scottish regiments. At 12:30 the room came to attention to see the traditional piping in of the boar's head and the haggis, with drum major Finn McCallum carrying the boar's head

UNUSAL BEETLES KNOWN AS GIANT WATERBUGS

A couple of strange looking beetles discovered last week at the B-A Service Station on No. 7 proved on investigation to be known as giant waterbugs. The beetles, some 2 inches long with a large wingspread were noticed by Rev. Morgan McFarlane when he stopped for gas at the service station. He brought a couple to the Herald Office and led by the Lorne Scots pipe band. A buffet supper was served with a huge buffet table down the centre of the floor.

was referred to the science department of the high school where A. M. Baxer identified the insects. The waterbugs are scavengers, usually found in ponds and are not uncommon in some sections of the province, though not seen too often in this vicinity.
