THIRD PERIOD RALLY MAKES NAPANEE OHA INT. 'A' CHAMPS

A terrific third period surge by the Napanee Comets carried them to their first Ontario Intermediate A hockey championship here Saturday night, when they shocked the Raiders and their supporters 5-4 to cop the title in the 7th game.

At the end of the second period everything pointed to another Georgetown title. The Raiders were two goals up; the defence was playing one of its strongest games, and the Comets looked like they were about to burn out. The only fly in the soup was a section of some 200 Napanee backers who persisted on continuing their chant of "Go Comets Go" and as it turned out in the final period their club got the message.

Two explosive tallies tied it at 4 all early in the frame and at 9:42 McKeegan stunned the crowd of 1600 into a half-believing silence when he pumped home the fifth goal. It was the first time that Napanee had taken the lead in the game and it was all they needed to snatch the cup away from the Raiders.

The coveted mug was presented to captain Les Douglas by OHA president Lorne Cook in a hurried ceremony at the timekeepers' box and the jubilant fans who had poured over the boards at the sound of the final buzzer swept the Blueshirts off the ice almost on the heels of the Raiders who had congratulated the winners and then skated off almost unnoticed by the slow moving crowd.

Something else the crowd may not have noticed was the fact when the Raiders lined up for the face off at the start of the game there were only five players left on the bench for Coach Nick Ferri's use when he shuffled his lines and, taking nothing away from the story book ending tacked on by Napanee, the Raiders were definitely running out of legs in the last period.

Brilliant in a losing cause were Ross Hawe, Lou Fawcett, Junior Beaumont, Dave Irons and Ron Dixon. Iron's value, though it didn't show up on the score sheet was apparent by its absence because it was while he was injured and missed his regular turn on the ice in the third period that Napanee banged in two goals inside 30 seconds to tie the score. Gerry Inglis opened the scoring early in the first period on a long snailing drive that caught the upper right hand corner and it hung at 1-0 until 12:41 when Douglas passed to McKeowan who beat Hawe cleanly. Blake Inglis brought the roof in when he rapped in the Raider's second marker of the period with just 45 seconds to go.

The Comets again tallied only once in the middle-period while Georgetown increased their margin by sniping another pair, Dixon and Varye the marksmen and for a while it looked like this would be the pattern, Georgetown scoring twice for every Napanee counter but 'twas not to be.

The Comets completely blanked the Raiders in the third and settled down to the job of carrying out their incredible upset. Brady at 5:18 and Marco at 5:38 quickly chopped down the lead and with it the big question changed from, what will the final score be?, to who will win and who will play the hero, and in to these rolls fell Napanee and McKeegan.
