MEMORIALS

HANCOCK—In memory of a dear mother, Gladys Hancock, who died May 4th, 1956. Not dead is Mother, but sleeping in her Father's home above. Rewarded for her suffering. Rewarded for her love. — Sadly missed by husband and daughter Olive.

LUSTY—In memory of our grandpa, Harvey Lusty, who passed away April 29th, 1956. We have only your memory dear Grandpa. To remember our whole life thru; But the sweetness lingers forever. As we treasure the image of you. — Sadly missed by grandchildren Billy and Linda.

LUSTY—In loving memory of a dear husband, Harvey Lusty, who passed away April 29th, 1956. When evening shades are falling and we sit in quiet alone, To our hearts there comes a longing. If he could only come home. Friends may think we have forgotten. When at times they see us smile, But they little know the heartache. Our smiles hide all the while. — Ever remembered by his wife Doris.

LUSTY—In loving memory of our dear dad, Harvey Lusty, who passed away April 29th, 1956. In tears we saw you sinking. We watched you fade away. Our hearts were almost broken. You fought so hard to stay. But when we saw you sleeping So peacefully free from pain We could not wish you back To suffer that again. — Always remembered by daughter June and son-in-law George.

LUSTY—In loving memory of a dear dad, Harvey Lusty, who passed away April 29th, 1956. Two years have passed dear dad, Since you were called away. How well do we remember That sad and weary day. You suffered much you murmured not. We watch you day by day. We cried and prayed that your dear life Would not be taken away. — Ever remembered by daughter Barbara.

WHEELER—In loving memory of my dear brother, Ed Wheeler, who passed away May 1st, 1956. Two years have passed since that sad day. When one I loved was called away. God took him home, it was His will. But in my heart he liveth still. — Always remembered by sister Bella.
