Alla Jr. Farmers Meet At R. Thompson's Home

Allpa Junior Farmers met at the home of Roy Thompson on Friday evening May 2nd for the regular meeting. The Junior Institute group opened their meeting with the Institute Ode. Roll Call was answered with "suggestions for thirty buying". Mrs. Borgstrom, home economist, explained, with the use of cardboard models, different styles and colours of clothes for the girls. In the boys meeting Jim McKane and Charlie Standing were appointed to locate a practice field for baseball. Two films were shown, "Making the most of a miracle" which showed the essential elements on plant growth, and "Soil Sampling" showing how soils were analyzed in the laboratory.

In the joint meeting they opened with the Junior Farmer's Song. Jim McCutough the Ag. Rep. explained about the trophy that the club was purchasing for the top 4-H Club member in the County. It was announced that the Garden Party will be held on July 11th at Reinhart's in Snelgrove. Robert Macdonald explained the requirements for the "Dairy Queen" contest. Don Garbutt was congratulated for being chosen the Junior Farmer representative on the Fair Board. The Maw sisters sang a duet and the meeting closed with the singing of the Queen. Robert Macdonald thanked their hosts for their hospitality.

FISHERMEN HAVE GOOD DAY, MAY 1st OPENING

May 1st was one of the best opening days yet for fishermen and reports of plentiful catches assured fish dinners in a great many local households. One fisherman was so proud of his luck he brought his booty to the Herald office to display it. Jim Jones, 34 Edith St., hooked three beautiful brown trout weighing about a pound apiece and a couple of smaller ones, in an early morning jaunt in the Glen Williams district.
