Double Ring Ceremony Milton Nurse Weds

Marilyn Frances Bradley, R.N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradley of Milton, became the bride of William Gordon McCuaig, son of Mrs. Henry McCuaig and the late Mr. Henry McCuaig of Shanty Bay, Ont. in a double ring ceremony, at Knox Presbyterian Church, Milton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. L. Royal of Norval. The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a full length wedding gown of pure silk organza with a princess line skirt, three-quarter sleeves and imported Chantilly lace and velvet applique with tiers on the full flowing skirt. A Juliette cap held her fingertip veil of silk illusion and she carried a cascade of pink delight roses. Joan Robinson acted as maid of honour and Helen Lawson as bridesmaid. Their dresses were full length turquoise organza over silk, with scoop neckline, and matching mitts. Their Swiss hair bandeaux matched their dresses and they carried ballerina bouquets of Lestra Hibbard roses. The junior bridesmaid, Carol Ann Cannon, looked very dainty in her full length shrimp organza over silk gown. Her flowered halo matched her dress and she carried a ballerina bouquet of Lestra Hibbard roses. Ross McCuaig, cousin of the groom, of Sarnia, was best man. The ushers were John Key and Bernal Livingston, of Shanty Bay. Catherine Bryson, aunt of the bride, sang The Lord's Prayer and Because, accompanied by Mrs. George Newell. The church was decorated with standards of white snapdragon and shasta mums. The reception was held in the school room of Knox Presbyterian church, and the dinner in the banquet room. The mother of the bride received 118 guests in a Dior blue lace dress over silk featuring a sequin beaded neckline, and similar design on a ballerina-length skirt. Her hat was in blue and her corsage of pink delight roses. The mother of the groom assisted, wearing a navy crepe dress piped in pink with pink accessories. She wore a corsage of gardenias. For travelling to the Eastern States, the bride chose an ensemble of French silk tweed. The dress was made on a sheath line with a swagger coat to match.

Lunch was served at the end of a very successful evening, and it is hoped another party will be held in the very near future.
