"Serving your community for over 30 years"

Six New Teachers Will Join High School Staff

Georgetown High School will have an international flavour on its teaching staff next term. Besides Glasgow-graduate Mrs. Sid Hardie, new addition to the staff include a lady from Johannesburg, South Africa; a graduate of Drew University in Wisconsin; and a lady just returned from teaching in a private school in Greece. A 5-teacher addition will boost the staff to a record total of 17 full-time teachers, 2 part-time and a music supervisor. Only retirement on the staff is that of Mrs.

John Gunn, who has been a part-time teacher for the past few years. Replacing Mrs. Gunn is John R. Walker, B.A., 52 Park Ave., who has been a supply teacher this year. A graduate of Drew University, Wisconsin, where he majored in history, Mr. Walker will be mainly teaching his specialist subject.

Paul Legge, B.A., University of Toronto, has been on the staff of St. Michael's College, Toronto, where as a student he played hockey for the Junior A team and interfaculty rugby. He is married and father of one child. Mr. Legge will teach English and physical training.

Miss Beryl Knocker, B.A. is a graduate of Wittwatersrand University in Johannesburg, South Africa, has taught in her native country and is leaving the staff of Lindsay Collegiate to come here, where she will teach English and history.

Miss Ann Rafal, B.A., McMaster University, has taught at St. Catharines and will come to town from a position at Sudbury Collegiate. She will teach maths and science.

Miss Evelyn MacKay, B.A., Trinity College has also the degree of Bachelor of Social Work from the University of Toronto. She has done social service work in Toronto and England, and recently returned to Canada from a 2-year teaching engagement in a private school in Athens, Greece. She will teach junior French, English and some guidance in Georgetown.

George B. Kaye, B.Sc., University of Toronto will be teaching maths and science. He has worked since graduation with the Dept. of Lands & Forests and with the Don Valley Conservation Authority. As a university student, Mr. Kaye was one of the group which located in Georgetown one summer to make a conservation study of the Credit Valley watershed for the Credit Valley Conservation Authority.

Staff members continuing at the high school are Principal J. L. Lambert, A. M. Baxter, Alan Prouse, Blair Armstrong, Thomas Beer, Alex Dobson, Maurice Pastyr, John Calbeck, Miss Florence Luke, Miss Rose Piercey, Mrs. Sid Hardie, Mrs. Robert Hess, Mrs. J. L. Lambert and music teacher Kenneth R. Harrison.

AOTS Church Group Delegate to Saskatoon

The AOTS (As One That Serves) organization, a men's group comprising members of United Churches at Norval, Glen Williams and Home, is sending a delegate to the national convention in June. Weldon Kilburn was chosen to represent the newly-formed club at Saskatoon when the club met at Home Church on May 22nd. The meeting took the form of a pot luck supper.

Rev. W. Edgar Gill talked about the boys' camp at Bolton, which is operated by the Halton, Dufferin, Peel presbytery and work which should be done to put the camp in proper shape and a committee was appointed to see what help the AOTS could give. A picnic committee was also named to arrange a summer picnic, members to include Ross Giles and Del Majeury from the Glen; Don Garbutt and Gilbert Beardmore, Home Church; Clark Lyons and Gordon Laidlaw from Norval.

Twenty new members were initiated at the meeting. Clark Lyons led a singsong and Gilbert Beardmore conducted a devotional. A September banquet will be the next regular meeting.

FRIENDS ENTERTAINED AT TEA IN HONOR OF JUNE BRIDE

An event was held last Wednesday afternoon in honour of a prospective June bride.

Mrs. Leslie Clark entertained friends at an afternoon tea at the North Halton Golf and Country Club in honour of Miss Eileen Thompson, of Toronto, who is being married in Knox Chapel, in Toronto on June 6th. Those assisting at the tea table were Mrs. W. C. Reynolds, Mrs.

Faithful Church Worker Mission Group President

After a sudden illness, Mrs. Myrtle Adams Junkin died in Guelph General Hospital on Wednesday, May 21st in her sixty-ninth year. Mrs. Junkin was born in Georgetown, the daughter of Annie Kennedy Adams and John Adams and she attended public and high schools here.

For a number of years she operated a millinery shop in town prior to her marriage to the late Charles Junkin in 1923. At that time she moved to Kenora where Mr. Junkin was postmaster. After his death eighteen years later she moved to Buffalo where she made her home with her mother, Mrs. Annie Adams and her sister Jean, both of whom survive her. Five years ago the family moved back to their family home at the corner of Church and Charles Street. She was a faithful church worker in St. John's United Church where in her younger years she was a member of the choir for many years. For the past two years she was president of the Women's Missionary Society.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane conducted the funeral service on Friday, May 23rd at the Harold C. McClure Funeral Home, 34 Edith St., Georgetown. Pallbearers were Harold, Lorne, George, Wilbert, Percy and Herbert Cleave. Interment was in Greenwood Cemetery, Georgetown.

Social & Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Rawson, Caroline Street, entertained on Sunday at a family luncheon and dinner. Their guests, members of both families, attended the confirmation service at St. George's Church on Sunday morning when David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rawson was confirmed. It was also the occasion of Mrs. Rawson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. March's forty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. March are from Guelph.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bell, Bestrepaire, Quebec, and their daughter Marilyn from Sarnia were guests in town over the week-end. Marilyn stayed with her grandmother, Mrs. Bertha Bell, 52 Main Street South, and Mr. and Mrs. Bell visited with several of their friends.
