Parents Watch Brownie Ceremony Enrolment

Knox Church Hall was a fairy land and an Indian encampment last Friday evening when the 5th Brownie pack under the direction of their Brown Owl, Mrs. Edmond Paris, enrolled five new Brownies that the Toadstool fairy, Judy Hobe, who magicked everyone in to the woods, found under a toadstool. The new Brownies are Lyn Hewson, Christine Tost, Linda Jennings, Mary Neale and Janice Williams.

The Golden Bar ceremony took place in "Indian" territory with all the participating Brownies being Indians and madame commissioner Marchmont being the Big Chief who stood on the golden ground. The stepping stones to the golden ground were mosses and as each Brownie reached a moss-casin she was stopped by an Indian Brownie with a tomahawk who asked her a question. Fortunately each girl could answer her question or else "off would come her head." Tawny Owl Doris Silk was the last stepping stone before the Big Chief. Assisting in the ceremonies of the evening were two "Packies" Mary Jean Tucker and Janie Hoare.

The Brownies who made the hazardous trip over the stepping stones to their Golden Bars were Ann Barrett, Pauline Cass, Patricia Tost, Linda Cuthbert, Carolyn Wright, Margaret Gilchrist, Jo-Anne Barber, Peggy-Anne Given, Mary Jane Emmerson, Janet Armstrong, Muriel Meekison, Brenda Elliott and Joan Docksey.

Four "Sisters" received Sixer stripes. Pauline Cass, Patricia Tost, Linda Cuthbert and Ann Barrett. Four "Seconders" got stripes too, Carolyn Wright, Margaret Gilchrist, Peggy Anne Given and Jo-Anne Barber.

Lisa Hoare, Brenda McNeil and Lynn Coffell received Madame Commissioner when she came to the Hall.

Parents attended the exciting evening for the girls with the mothers serving and preparing the lunch.

GUELPH FIRM PICNIC AT TERRA COTTA INN

Saturday was a gala day at Terra Cotta Inn when McDonald, Currie and Company, chartered accountants, Guelph, held their annual picnic at the Inn. Two hundred and fifty guests attended and were entertained by Peter the Clown. There was a big lawn marquee, lots of beautiful gifts, pony rides and the children of the picnic were entertained at a wiener roast on the Island in the river. A tug-of-war, races and swimming were also enjoyed.

TAGGERS for the annual Navy League tag day last Friday and Saturday report a good response from the public for this worthwhile endeavour.
