WEED CONTROL NEWS
by V. E. McArthur
Halton Weed Inspector
POISON IVY

Poison ivy is a perennial plant, most commonly found at summer cottages, picnic grounds, school yards, bathing beaches, and camp sites. It causes misery and discomfort to many people, and everyone for his own protection, should learn to recognize this plant.

Poison ivy is a creeping vine which has alternate leaves, each of which is divided into three distinct leaflets, usually waxy in appearance, two to four inches in length and pointed at the tips. White or green flowers are found in clusters on long stalks and later turn to white berries about the size of a pea. This weed need not be confused with Virginia Creeper. Ivy has three leaflets and white berries, while Virginia Creeper has five leaflets and blue berries. Just remember the old rhyme:

"Leaves three, turn and flee, Leaves five, leave alive."

In order to have this "Vacation Spoiler" controlled, patches of poison ivy found growing in public places should be reported to your municipal authorities. The Ontario Dept. of Agriculture have recommended several chemicals for its control including 2, 4-D brushkill and sodium chlorate. A new chemical called AT (Amino Triazole) is now considered to be the most effective. This chemical, applied when the plants are in full leaf at the rate of 4 tablespoons to a gallon of water gives satisfactory results. When treating small areas an ordinary knap-sack sprayer may be used to thoroughly wet the plants with the solution.

Herald Adlets bring the best results possible. Have you tried one to dispose of unneeded furniture, etc.

Glen Teacheff 35 Years Honoured by School Board

A new and pleasant departure was observed on Wednesday evening, June 11th when the Equestrian Township School Area No. 1 entertained the teachers under its jurisdiction to a dinner and social evening at Hilltop Lodge, Erin.

The teachers were invited to attend with escorts in order to get to know the board members and their wives, and arrangements for the affair were in the hands of board members James P. Kirkwood and Rev. G. L. Royal. It was announced at the dinner that the Chief Inspector of Public Schools for Halton County, Lorne L. Skuce, would take up new duties on September 1st when his new appointment as Superintendent of Public Schools in Trafalgar Township takes effect.

The chairman of the meeting, Mr. Royal, made the announcement in regard to Mr. Skuce's appointment, and Mr. Kirkwood, on behalf of the board made a presentation of a mantel clock to retiring teacher Mrs. W. H. Beaumont, who has served the board since 1923 in Glen Williams school, thanking her for faithful services and a willing spirit. Mrs. Beaumont thanked the board and wished it well in the years ahead.

The guests were welcomed by Trustee Clarence M. Coles, R.R. 1 Acton, who stated that the board had hoped for a long time to entertain its teachers socially. Mr. Skuce also spoke urging understanding of pupils upon those who take up the calling of a teacher, and in his remarks, the Board Chairman Robert J. Cunningham reviewed the list of teachers in the area and thanked them for their services in the past year, observing that the board was losing eight teachers this year to other areas, or to Normal School or to retirement. A serious invitation was extended to those entering Normal School to consider this area when they again applied for positions. Trustee Stanley J. Brown thanked the committee for arranging the banquet and the teachers and their escorts for attending.

After the delicious turkey dinner was over Miss Hilda Boyes, Glen Williams School, conducted a social hour and a sing song was led by Music Supervisor Miss Donna McMillan.

Those attending from the various schools in the Area were: Glen Williams, Principal and Mrs. Ralph McKeown, Mr. and Mrs. Al Spense, Miss Hilda Boyes, Mrs. Edna Beaumont, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Darcie, Miss Carol Underhill and Mr. Lewis Farnham; Normal: Principal Agnes Brunskill, Mr. and Mrs. John Noble, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cascarden; Stewarttown: Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Snow, Mrs. Lyla H. Pollock and John Pollock; Ashgrove, Mr. and Mrs. William Cromar; Lorne: Mr. and Mrs. Barber; Bannockburn: Mr. and Mrs. Rognvaldson; Blue Mountain: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shortill; Dubtin: Mr. and Mrs. Ross Britten; Dufferin: Miss June Lindsay; Waterloo: Miss Margaret McEdward; Stone: Mrs. Eva Press; wood: Music Supervisor, Miss Donna McMillan and Mr. Tom Manes. Miss Ruth Evans, former school board secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Nellie Gardiner attended from Georgetown.

School board members and their wives attending were: Chairman and Mrs. R. J. Cunningham, trustee James P. Kirkwood and Mrs. Kirkwood; trustee and Mrs. C. M. Coles, Trustee and Mrs. G. L. Royal, and representing the Inspectors' Department, Chief Inspector Lorne L. Skuce.

AUCTION CLOSES ESTATE OF ARCHITECT, MUSICIAN

The possessions of a famous architect and a talented musician were sold at public auction on Saturday, June 7th, at Everton. In a closing estate sale by the auctioneers Hindley & Elliott.

The estate was that of Mrs. Dorothy Jago and the sale took place at her home which was a remodelled log cabin, the type that one would find on the pages of Better Homes and Gardens filled with beautiful antiques suitable to the setting.

Mrs. Jago was an accomplished musician but for the past few years was crippled with arthritis and was unable to use her hands. She was a former resident of Limehouse living in the home owned and occupied by Lt. Col. and Mrs. Bourne. She moved to the Forks of the Credit and finally to Everton where she died during the past winter. She was originally from England and from Oakville prior to coming to Limehouse. Mr. Jago had died before she came to this district.

Mr. Jago was a famous architect having designed several large and beautiful churches in New York City and elsewhere. Mr. and Mrs. Jago died leaving no children hence their possessions sold at auction to clear the estate.

CLUB MIDTOWN

by Kerse

It was nice to see another good crowd at Midtown Friday night.

The executive held a meeting in the Rose Room on Thursday, June 5th and it was decided that as long as the attendance stays up Midtown will be operating during the summer months. This was the first of the new Club Midtown plan for public meetings to be held every second week, the next one to be held tomorrow night. The meetings are open to everyone interested in Midtown work. (this includes parents.)

It was also decided that more interest would be put into variety dances such as Bingo, Paul Jones, Broom Dances, etc., to make it easier for the newcomers to get acquainted with their fellow "teeners."

Remember the next meeting on Thursday night and watch the column next week when we may have some more news for you. Until then the purple people eater says, see you at Midtown. Bye now.

LOCAL RESIDENT WINS DESIGN SCHOLARSHIP

Jim Warren, 17 Edith Street is one of seven Canadians who have been awarded scholarships by the National Industrial Design Council. Under their grant he will attend a summer course at the Centre for Design Studies in Boston, Mass., having the theme "Communications for Designers."

A plastic laundry basket moulded by Smith & Stone which won Mr. Warren an N.I.D.C. Design award in April, is now on display with other Canadian products in Paris this month. It is part of an industrial design exhibition being sponsored by France's Institute of Industrial Design, which includes work from Germany, Belgium, Great Britain, Italy, Norway, Sweden, the Netherlands and the United States as well as France and Canada.
