Leslie Bell Choir Sings At Wedding in Cheltenham

An evening wedding ceremony by candlelight in Cheltenham Baptist Church united in marriage Wilma Jean Newhouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Elmore Newhouse, 22 Elgin Street, Georgetown and Theodore A. B. Laidlaw, son of Alexander B. Laidlaw, Toronto and the late Mrs. Loblav. Rev. F. A. Luck officiated, assisted by Rev. Walter P. Shell. Mrs. Theodore Haines was organist and Mrs. Donald McArthur sang 'The Lord's Prayer' during the ceremony, and the Leslie Bell Choir sang 'Wedding Prayer and Where'er Ye Walk' during the signing of the register. The bride is a member of the Leslie Bell Singers.

The bride entered the church on her father's arm, wearing a white satin wedding gown designed with fitted bodice and portrait neckline inset with French lace. The sheath skirt had a bustle back which fell to a cathedral train. A crown of pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried white orchids on a white bible.

Miss Isobel Newhouse was maid of honour and bridesmaids were Mary Lou Willis, Mrs. S. F. Wilcocks and Mrs. William Stinson. They wore Italian sheath peau de soie gowns in summer pastel shades with overskirts of beige lace. Their headresses were bands of beige straw and they carried yellow mums and carnations.

David Adam was groomsmen and ushers were Douglas Loblav, Elliott Snyder and Donald Parks. Receiving afterwards at the Skyline Hotel, the bride's mother wore periwinkle blue lace and a corsage of pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Loblav left for a honeymoon trip in eastern Canada and the States, the bride travelling in a printed blue silk suit with green and white accessories and orchid corsage. They will reside in Toronto.

CLUB MIDTOWN
 by Korze

Ah! Missed your last edition but I am reporting for duty again. The Midnights seemed to be well accepted when they entertained at Midtown a couple of weeks ago and we hope to have them back soon.

The few good souls who attended the meeting last Thursday know that the next meeting will be a combined election and dance. It will be held on Thursday, July 17th so please come, support and elect the new Midtown executive.

Two points brought up at the meeting were: contests and holding the dance until 12.30. It was decided that the weather is too warm to hold the contests now and as long as it remained so they will be shelved until cooler seasons. For all concerned the 12.30 deadline seemed too late since all through the years the club has been running dances, 12 o'clock has always been a satisfactory time to exit.

When Bobby Freeman says "Do you want to dance," he really means come to Midtown on Friday nights. See you at the Rose Room, and don't forget the elections on July 17th at 8 o'clock. Bye now.

SEVENTEEN CHILDREN ARE BAPTIZED AT ST. JOHN'S

On Sunday, June 29th at a service in St. John's United Church, Rev. Morgan McFarlane officiated at a baptism service at which 17 children were baptized.

They are: Glenda Jean, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Williamson; Dale Lee and Stephen Wayne, children of Mr. and Mrs. Don Jacobson; Ellen Ruth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gardhouse; William Charles Kenneth, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Murdoch; Harriet Elizabeth Florence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick King; Wendy Sue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tracey Barrager; Michael Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Boxford; Robert Jack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hamilton; Lawrence Andrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stan Wright; Sandra Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Robinson; Debra Lynn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger St. Cyr; James Malcolm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Hayes; Elizabeth Dawn, David Keith, Janet Gail and Donald James, children of Mr. and Mrs. Keith York.

Norval and Union Presbyterians Have Picnic at Stanley Park

The annual picnic of Norval and Union Presbyterian churches was held on Tuesday, July 8th at Stanley Park, Erin.

During the dinner hour a jar of beans was circulated at the tables so that each adult and child could make a guess as to the number in the jar. This contest was won by Pat Chapman who guessed the right quantity, 763 beans. After the meal, which was delicious and neatly served, games and sports were enjoyed.

The following races were run off by the Rev. G. L. Royal, S. F. McClure, J. M. Archdekin, W. A. Ostrander and Ernest Caville; preschool won by Margaret Ostrander and Craig McClure; girls 6, 7, 8 won by Elizabeth Clark and Gwendolyn Macdonald; boys 6, 7, 8 won by Robert McGee and Timothy Reed; girls 9, 10 won by Elma Clark and Margaret McClure; boys 9, 10 won by Jim Archdekin and Jack Crawford; girls 11, 12 won by Iowen Macdonald and Linda Leslie; boys 11, 12 won by James Archdekin and Bill Knox; young ladies won by Judith Clark; young men's race won by Keith Leslie; ladies' shoe kick record went to Edith McDonald; sack race was handily won by John McGee; the father-son wheelbarrow race was taken by J. M. Archdekin and son Jim; three-legged race by the twosome, Arthur Davis and Jim Archdekin; ladies balloon blowing championship went to Mrs. John V. McClure. A comic feature of the picnic was the ladies nail driving contest which was readily won by Mrs. Herbert Campbell. The men's nail driving championship went to an old pro, Mr. Clarence Anderson. The committee to arrange the picnic was composed of Victor Ostrander, T. M. McGee, S. F. McClure, Eric Leslie and the Rev. G. L. Royal.

THE MAIL BAG
URGE FULL TURNOUT FOR HOG MARKETING VOTE

July 11th, 1958
 Dear Mr. Editor:
 On Friday, July 25th, an estimated 525 Halton farmers will be given the opportunity to vote on the method of selling their hogs. The question asked on the secret ballot will require a simple indication of yes or no. There will not be a series of choices to make. It will simply be a choice between the present organized system of marketing or no system at all.

There has been a great deal of discussion, debate and argument over the question that faces producers when they go to the polls. Like all plans the present marketing method has come in for criticism and attack but the question facing producers will simply be whether they want to continue cooperative, organized marketing. They will not be asked to say whether or not they favor the present compulsory directional system, whether they want more assembly points or fewer, larger or smaller, whether they like or dislike the people they have placed in charge of the marketing operation.

Producers will decide by their vote whether they want to single-handed bargain to sell hogs or whether they prefer to bargain as an organized group. Hog producers in Halton and other Ontario counties have an important decision to make when they cast their ballot. We are not so presumptuous as to suggest to producers, familiar with the problems of both systems, the choice they should make.

We do urge that Halton's 525 producers do, however, take the necessary time to cast their ballot after an understanding review of the problems involved. Halton hog producers have an important date on July 25. It is their democratic duty to express their opinion by the ballot they cast.

Sincerely,
 Halton Hog Producers Assoc.

MAPLE TREE, TV SETS SUFFER STORM DAMAGE

A severe lightning and thunder storm did minor damage around town when it hit this area Thursday night. A large maple tree at the high school was the target of one of the strongest bolts and was split down the middle. Two TV antennas were also singled out by the lightning resulting in a couple of damaged sets.

Though a brief storm gave many residents some anxious moments and produced some of the loudest claps of thunder heard in quite a while. At one point hailstones joined with the rain and tested local windows for about five minutes before the variety-pack of the elements receded as quickly as it came.
