Orangemen Celebrate "12th" in Brampton

A strong delegation of members from Georgetown's Loyal Orange Lodge and the lodge of the local True Blues were among the 3000 Orangemen who celebrated the Battle of the Boyne with their annual parade in Brampton on Saturday, July 15th.

The parade which was easily a mile long and took over an hour to pass, comprised Orange Lodges from five counties and was headed by the county marshal, Carson Embling of Brampton. James Andrews and Mrs. Bob Harris led the Georgetown lodges.

Spectators jammed the parade route with Main Street handling most of the crowd which was six deep in places. The parade formed in Rosalea Park and proceeded south on Main Street, covered approximately three miles of Brampton streets and finished in Gage park where the remainder of the afternoon was spent in speech-making by some of the many honored guests as well as MPP Thomas L. Kennedy, Mayor Nance Horwood, the Grand Master of the LOBA for Ontario West, Mrs. Beth Harvey and Past Grand Master for Ontario West Fred Cook.

Listed among the prize winners were: Best LOL life and drum band, Golden Jubilee Band, Toronto; best appearing band, Guelph air cadets; best LOL banner, Weston; best LOBA banner, Toronto-Oakwood; Best marching LOL, Prince Arthur Lodge of Guelph; best marching LOBA, Woodbridge; best appearing LOL, Campbell's Cross; best appearing LOBA, Arthur; largest LOL on parade, Woodbridge; largest LOBA on parade, Mono Mills.

MAY BE ANNUAL EVENT JERSEY SALE SO GOOD

Jersey cows from Ontario changed hands and a number started journeys out of the Province on Monday, July 1. The fairgrounds at Woodstock was the location of the first "All-Ontario Jersey Consignment Sale," and results were so satisfactory that officials of the Jersey Clubs anticipate the event going "annual."

Manager of the sale, J. T. Markham, Ingersoll, reports "Twenty-eight head were handled in this sale, and the average selling price was $470.00. This average is substantially higher than would have been experienced even last year, and indicates that the upward trend in Jersey values, which began several years ago, still is continuing."

Top price of the sale was recorded for a beautiful four-year old cow consigned by Lorne J. Richardson & Son, Woodstock. She was bid up to $1700 by Henry Uehlein, Heaven Hill Farm, Lake Placid, New York.

Another four year old went at the second-highest price of $1075. Consigned by Fred Nurse, Georgetown. She will travel to Sandia, Texas, to the famous Knolle Farm. The quality Jerseys came from twenty-two Ontario herds and went to fifteen different buyers. Nine head went to 7 purchasers from the United States, with locations in New York, Michigan, Kentucky, Utah, Texas, and Alabama. J. D. Oliver, secretary-manager, Ontario Jersey Club pointed out: "This cash-on-the-barrelhead interest demonstrates the high regard for the calibre of Ontario's Jersey stock."

Harry Hays, Calgary, Alta., was auctioneer, Bob Bell, Birmingham, Alabama, and Don Spencer, Ingersoll, were ringmen.

FARM NEWS Halton Farmers Baseball Champs at Field Day

by J. E. W.

The Junior Farmers' softball tournament at the Western Ontario Junior Farmer field day, annually held in Guelph, has over the years been in our opinion, the most hotly contested single event of the entire program. This year was no exception, with sixteen county teams participating. After ten years of trying, the Halton team came through with a bang and "copped" the trophy and championship crests. Linton Naylor of Milton is reported to have done a tremendous job of coaching, and had the Halton team on their toes throughout. John C. Willmott, and Lloyd Vivian shared the pitching duties and were in top form.

During the day the Halton stars eliminated Oxford, Dufferin, and Waterloo counties, and then in the finals, after a twelve inning battle, they defeated Bruce county for the championship. The team members were as follows:

Pitchers: Lloyd Vivian and John Willmott; catcher: Glen Richardson; 1st base: John Pegg; 2nd base: Graham Gillies; shortstop: Len Coollich; 3rd base: Don Vivian.

Outfielders: John Jarvis, Ken Vivian, Clarence McCann, and Don Pegg.

Halton entries in other events of the day's programme also gave a good account of themselves and were in here battling all the way.

ERIN'S OLDEST RESIDENT DIES

Erin's oldest resident, James Binnie, died in Peel Memorial Hospital, Brampton, on June 30th, following a brief illness, in his 96th year.

A son of Peter Binnie and his wife Sarah Knowles, he was born in Erin Twp. and spent his life in the township and village. He served both Erin township and village as a councillor for many terms. He was a devoted member of Burns' Presbyterian Church and was an elder for 71 years.

His wife, the former Jane Kennedy predeceased some years ago. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. J. G. Sharp, Brampton. Two brothers and two sisters predeceased—Charles and Frank; Mrs. Alex McKinney and Catherine.

The funeral took place from the Weddell funeral home to Burns' Presbyterian Church, on July 3rd when his pastor, Rev. E. Hawkes conducted the service. Interment was made at Erin Cemetery. The pallbearers were Harold Meek, Fred McLaren, Wm. Barbour, Frank Cunningham, elders of Burns' Church and James Gillespie and R. D. Graham.

HOW'S YOUR I.Q.?

TODAY'S INSURANCE PROBLEMS ANSWERED

QUESTION: Does Business Interruption Insurance, which pays fixed expenses, payroll and profits in case of fire, actually have value when most fires are minor?

ANSWER: Even a small fire can hinder business activity; sales and profits stop while expenses continue.
