

Campbellville Church Setting for Wedding

Standards of white pom-poms, glads and fern decorated St. David's Presbyterian Church, Campbellville, for the marriage of Marianne Ethel Greenlees and William Andrew John Elliot. Rev. H. C. Marr, the minister of the church officiated at the double ring ceremony on Saturday afternoon, July 12th.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Wilfrid Greenlees and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Elliot of Campbellville.

Organist was Miss Shirley Chester. The soloist, Lloyd Early, sang The Lord's Prayer and Wedding Hymn.

The bride's gown was full length fashioned of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin, featuring a Peter Pan collar and lily-pointed sleeves. A fingertip veil of tulle fell from her crown headress of pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of red sweetheart roses and stephanotis on a white ribbon.

The bride's four attendants were her maid of honour Miss Lois Greenlees her sister; the two bridesmaids, Miss Anne Gilbert, Milton and Miss Joan Black, Campbellville; and the flower girl, Miss Nancy Bickers of Milton. They were gowned alike in street length dresses of blue crystalettes over satin. They wore matching hats and white accessories. Pale pink carnations and pink sweetheart roses formed their nosegays.

Tom Elliot of Campbellville, the groom's brother, was best man. Ushers were Ross Elliott of Campbellville, a cousin of the groom; Peter McPhail of Burlington, a cousin of the groom; Neil Benton of Limehouse, a cousin of the bride and George Greenlees, R.R. 3 Campbellville, a cousin of the bride.

"Shady Neck" the bride's home, was the setting for the reception which followed, when guests gathered on the lawn included friends and relatives from Chatham, Toronto, Inglewood, Hamilton, Limehouse, Oakville, Milton and the surrounding district. Mr. and Mrs. J. Neilson of Peru, the bride's mother's parents, were the only grandparents present at the wedding.

The tables were attractively decorated with small bouquets of pink and white roses.

Mrs. Greenlees wore for her daughter's marriage a dress of rose satin back chromspun with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. The groom's mother, Mrs. Elliot, chose a blue hammered satin dress with white accessories. Her corsage was of deep pink carnations.

The couple left on a trip to Northern Ontario. The bride wore a powder blue linen suit with white accessories and a corsage of red sweetheart roses. They are making their home near Campbellville.

—Now is the time to prepare exhibits for Georgetown Fall Fair on October 3, 4, in the park.
