Local Couple's Grandson
William Merritt Marries

A wedding of local interest took place in Mayfield United Church on July 19th, when Rev. John McDermid officiated at the marriage of Marlene Ruth Archdekin and William Duncan Merritt. The bride, an employee of the Ontario Hydro office in Brampton, is the daughter of Mrs. E. S. Archdekin, R. R. 4, Brampton, and the late Mrs. Archdekin. Her husband, a Gunned Paper Ltd. employee is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Merritt, Brampton and grandson of Mr. and Mrs. William Merritt, 33 John St. E., Georgetown.

Standards of pink and white gladioli, mums and carnations decorated the church and Miss Lynne Davidson was organist.

The bride wore a gown of imported pure silk organza, the neckline bordered with fine guipure lace appliques. The full skirt was also appliqued at the bodice in guipure lace. A fingertip veil of nylon net illusion was faught to a tiara of seed pearls. She also wore a pearl necklace and earrings and carried a bouquet of white gardenias surrounded by pink roses and stephanotis.

Miss Charlene Archdekin was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride's niece, Miss Maribel Carson, and Miss Marilyn Sheffield, a cousin of the groom. Mary Jane Ward of Georgetown was junior bridesmaid. Attendants wore chiffon dresses of pink roses on white background over white taffeta. Each had a pink velvet sash and matching velvet bandeaus. They wore white gloves and shoes and carried pink roses.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother James Archdekin. Groomsman was Terry Merritt, brother of the groom; ushers were Donald Haynes and Les Archdekin, another brother of the bride. It was a double ring ceremony.

A reception followed at the Junction Diner, where Mrs. Archdekin received wearing Dior blue lace, pink accessories and a corsage of sweetheart roses. The groom's mother assisted, wearing an emerald green ensemble with beige accessories and a corsage of gold roses.

Leaving on a honeymoon trip to Bangor Lodge, Muskoka, the bride wore a fitted, turquoise dress, white accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Mr. and Mrs. Archdekin will be living in their newly built home at 76 Cornwall Road, Brampton.

Guild Members Visit
Music Fair At Dixie

Sixteen members of the St. Stephen's Guild attended the Music Fair at Dixie to see the show "Happy Hunting" on Tuesday evening, August 5th. The evening was planned in honour of Arlene Johnson and Barbara Wilson, who are leaving this community soon. After the show everyone went to the Dixie restaurant. Before the lunch Irene Hunter presented Arlene and Barbara, each with a lovely white beaded evening purse and before the show they were given a corsage. The evening was a real success with everyone enjoying the show and the honour guests really surprised.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson and family are moving to a farm near Grand Valley. Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson and family are moving to Sarnia.

On Wednesday evening, August 6th, a surprise baby shower was given in honour of Mrs. Wm. Bailey at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Tallyn with twenty friends present. Adele Leslie was in charge of the entertainment for the night and three games were played. Helen Shaw, Lou Bradley and Elva Howden were the winners and won the prizes. Mrs. Bailey was then presented with a
