MEMORIALS

DICKENSON - In loving memory of Pte. Harry David Dickenson, Royal Regiment of Canada, who died August 9th, 1942 after Dieppe.

—Always remembered by Mother and family.

DICKENSON - In loving memory of a dear son and brother, Stanley Dickenson, who died while serving overseas with the Canadian Army, August 28th, 1944. His charming ways and smiling face.

Are a pleasure to recall; He had a kindly word for each, And died beloved by all.

—Ever remembered by mother and father, brother and sisters.

FRY - In loving memory of a dear husband John (Frisco) Fry, who passed away Aug. 28th, 1956. Though his smile has gone forever And his hand I cannot touch; Still I have so many memories Of the one I loved so much. Though out of sight, he's ever near Still loved, still missed, still mine.

He will live with me in memory Until the end of time.

—Lovingly remembered by your wife Lillie.

Social & Personal

Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Paul, 30 Mill St. have returned home after spending ten days in the Ottawa Valley and district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McKinlay of Toronto are visiting with Mr. Percy and Miss Hazel Harrison, 38 Charles St.

Major Lloyd Leslie, who lives in Pasadena, California, spent a few days last week visiting with his mother, Mrs. Thomas Leslie, and sister Elizabeth, 7 Durham St. and sister Elizabeth, 7 Durham St.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Muszinski, 8 Sargent Road, were in Montreal recently for four days where his sister, Irene left for a tour of Europe, including a visit with her grandparents in Poland, aboard the SS Homeric. She also plans to visit the World's Fair at Brussels. While in Montreal Mr. and Mrs. Muszinski stayed at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel. For the trip Mrs. Muszinski took time out from her summer vacation at their cottage on Lake Dairymple north of Orillia where she has been holidaying with her mother-in-law, Mrs. J. Muszinski and an aunt, Mrs. Justin both of Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Turkington, Dianne and Elaine, 38 Prince Charles Drive, motored to Vernon, B.C., where they visited with Mrs. Turkington's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Rudiasch. It was a family reunion and members of the family were present from Edmonton, Vancouver, Washington, D.C. and One Hundred Mile House in the Cariboo country. There was unexpected added excitement on their holiday when the Medical Arts Building in Vernon was the target for one of the Douk-houhour bombs. Mr. and Mrs. Turkington left their car in Vernon and enjoyed the scenic trip home by train on the Canadian.
