THESE PHONE WIRES WERE REALLY CROSSED
A local lady, Mrs. J. Naray, 85 McIntyre Crescent, was mystified to receive a phone call from Ohio one day last week.
When her phone rang, the operator asked if this was TRiangle 7-9787 and when so informed, said there was a collect call from a Mrs. Tzsch. The name was unfamiliar and with no friends or relatives in Ohio, Mrs. Naray explained that there must be some mistake. There certainly was, for it turned out that the Ohio lady was placing her call to Dayton, Ohio.

BALLINAFAD ENROL 72 PUPILS TWO DISTRICT SCHOOLS

A total of 72 district children are registered in the two schools which serve residents of the Ballinafad area. Enrolment at Blue Mountain School includes six beginners this year, and there are 5 newcomers at Peacock School where total enrolment is 34. A recent visitor with the F. W. Shortills was their nephew, Jack Branan of Atlanta, Georgia. He is a grandson of the late Mr. and Mrs. Phares Vannatter.

Scotsdale Bull is Top Junior CNE Shorthorn

Breeders in this locality took a large number of the top awards in the Shorthorn show at the CNE, in competition with the best in Ontario, with Manitoba and Quebec cattle also showing.

The herd of S. G. Bennett, of Georgetown was particularly strong in the bull classes with their mature bull, Scotsdale Lucifer, being made Senior and Grand Champion. Their junior yearling bull, Scotsdale Marshall, was Junior Champion and another Bennett bull, the winning summer yearling, Scotsdale Mentor, was Reserve Junior Champion. Mr. Bennett is a former president of the Royal Winter Fair.

George Lasby, Guelph, showed the Reserve Senior Champion female, Laslynturn Lady 8th, a former CNE Grand Champion. This herd also produced the second prize senior bull calf; 3rd prize junior bull calf; 2nd prize 2 year old female, and the 2nd prize group of 3 calves.

R. W. Gardhouse, Milton, placed 2nd in the senior yearling bulls; 1st and 3rd in senior bull calves; 3rd in pair of bulls; 3rd prize senior yearling heifer; 3rd prize junior heifer calf; 1st prize group of 3 calves.

T. C. Amos, Moffat, had the winning senior heifer calf, Amos-

TWO BALL FOURSOME DANCE AT GOLF CLUB
Saturday was two ball foursome day at the North Halton Golf and Country Club where the men's and ladies' section sponsored a gala day of competitions, banquet and later a dance, the latter two being handled by the club's social committee. Some fifty-two golfers attended the festivities, many copying prizes on the day's play.
Mrs. J. H. Chamberlain and Dr. J. R. Kerby won 1st low gross, and Jim Carney and Mrs. Ron Kitchen first low net. Mrs. Don Rand and L. Ward took second low net while Jim Linton and Mrs. R. Wicks were low on the fourth. Mrs. Stuart Young and Reg Broomhead had high score on the ninth.

TENDER FOR GARBAGE
Considering possibility of combining garbage collection with landfill, with a private contractor taking over the whole job, council decided to advertise for tenders.
Public works chairman Alfred Sykes, in making the motion, said that the present system is cumbersome and costly, with garbage collection under private contract and the town using its own men and equipment to dispose of garbage by landfill.
