Wear Mountie Uniforms At Hillsburg Wedding

A very colourful wedding ceremony took place in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Hillsburg, on Saturday, August 16th, when June Catherine MacKay, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross R. MacKay, Hillsburg, became the bride of William George Turner, RCMP, Ottawa, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Turner, Dunmurry, Ireland.

White and red gladioli backed by green fern made an archway at the altar of the church, where Rev. George Wilson performed the ceremony. Mrs. Wallace Barbour played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Auburn Wright, Erin, who sang "O Lord Most Holy" at the signing of the register, and as the bridal party stood at the altar prior to the commencement of the service, "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white bridal satin, falling away in folds at the front from a panel of imported French lace, with long lightly pointed sleeves, and yolk of the same lace, encrusted with sequins. Her skirt fell in pleats to a train of satin scalloped bordered with lace and caught up with sequins. Her three tiered finger tip veil was caught by a pearl and sequin coronet, and she carried a bouquet of white fringed carnations and red roses, with white bridal streamers.

Miss Alice Howe, Stratford cousin of the bride, was maid of honour, and wore a waltz length gown of Nile green organza caught up in panels by tiny flowers, over a double net skirt, with matching shoes and mittens, and velvet and net headband. She carried a bouquet of tawny gold tulle roses surrounded by yellow carnations.

The bridesmaids, Anne Luke and Elma Stringer, both of Georgetown, wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honour, the former in yellow, the latter in orchid.

Miss Brenda Huxley, Hillsburgh, was flower girl, daintily attired in rose coral with matching floral headdress, and carrying a basket of white baby mums and pink flecked carnations.

Best man was Corporal Mel Gilbert, and the ushers were Corporal Bill Leitch, and Constable Vaughn all of the RCMP, Ottawa. The gentlemen of the bridal party wore scarlet tunics and the full dress uniform of the RCMP.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the Presbyterian church hall attractively decorated in blue and gold streamers, the RCMP colors. The bride's table was centred with a four tiered hand decorated wedding cake, topped with a miniature mountie and his bride. The guests' tables were centred with a miniature mountie groom and bride dressed in the same material as that of the bride.

Receiving her guests, Mrs. MacKay wore an aqua lace over taffeta sheath, with matching lace hat, white accessories, and a corsage of pink roses and white carnations.

For a wedding trip to northern points, the bride donned a white linen sheath, a turquoise band at the waist, with matching turquoise duster. Her pillbox hat was of white silk shantung, her accessories matching. She wore a corsage of red roses and white carnations.

The couple will reside in Ottawa.

Out of town guests were present from Erin, Guelph, Toronto, Parry Sound, Ottawa, Stratford, Seaford and Orton.

MOTOR TRIP COVERS 6,000 HOLIDAY MILES

The first seventeen days of August, Mrs. W. G. Young and daughter Jean of Scarborough, son Fred of Glen Williams and Mrs. A. Thain, of Toronto, aunt of Mrs. Young, enjoyed a motor trip which covered 6,600 miles. They first drove to Lethbridge, Alberta, where they visited with Mrs. Young's sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Black. After spending a few days there, they travelled on to Modesto, California, where they stayed four days with Mrs. Young's other sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Glenn Cantrell.

Before leaving on the trip home the party journeyed to San Francisco, which is 90 miles from Modesto. Then they spent an enjoyable half day in the National Park at Medicine Bow, Wyoming. At Milwaukee they visited Mr. H. Caird and his aunt. While there, they spent the afternoon at the zoo which is world famous. The last night of the trip was spent with cousins of Mrs. Thain's, Mr. and Mrs. J. Grant of Chicago.

Mrs. Young reports excellent weather for the entire trip and wonderful road conditions.

Mrs. Frederick Johnston Last Member of Family

A district resident, Mrs. Frederick O. Johnston, died at the Flynn Nursing Home on August 20th after a lengthy illness. She was the last surviving member of a family of eight children. Mrs.

Johnston was the former Gertrude Nellis, a daughter of William and Elizabeth Smith Nellis, and was born in 1884. In 1908 she married Frederick Johnston in Nassagaweya Township.

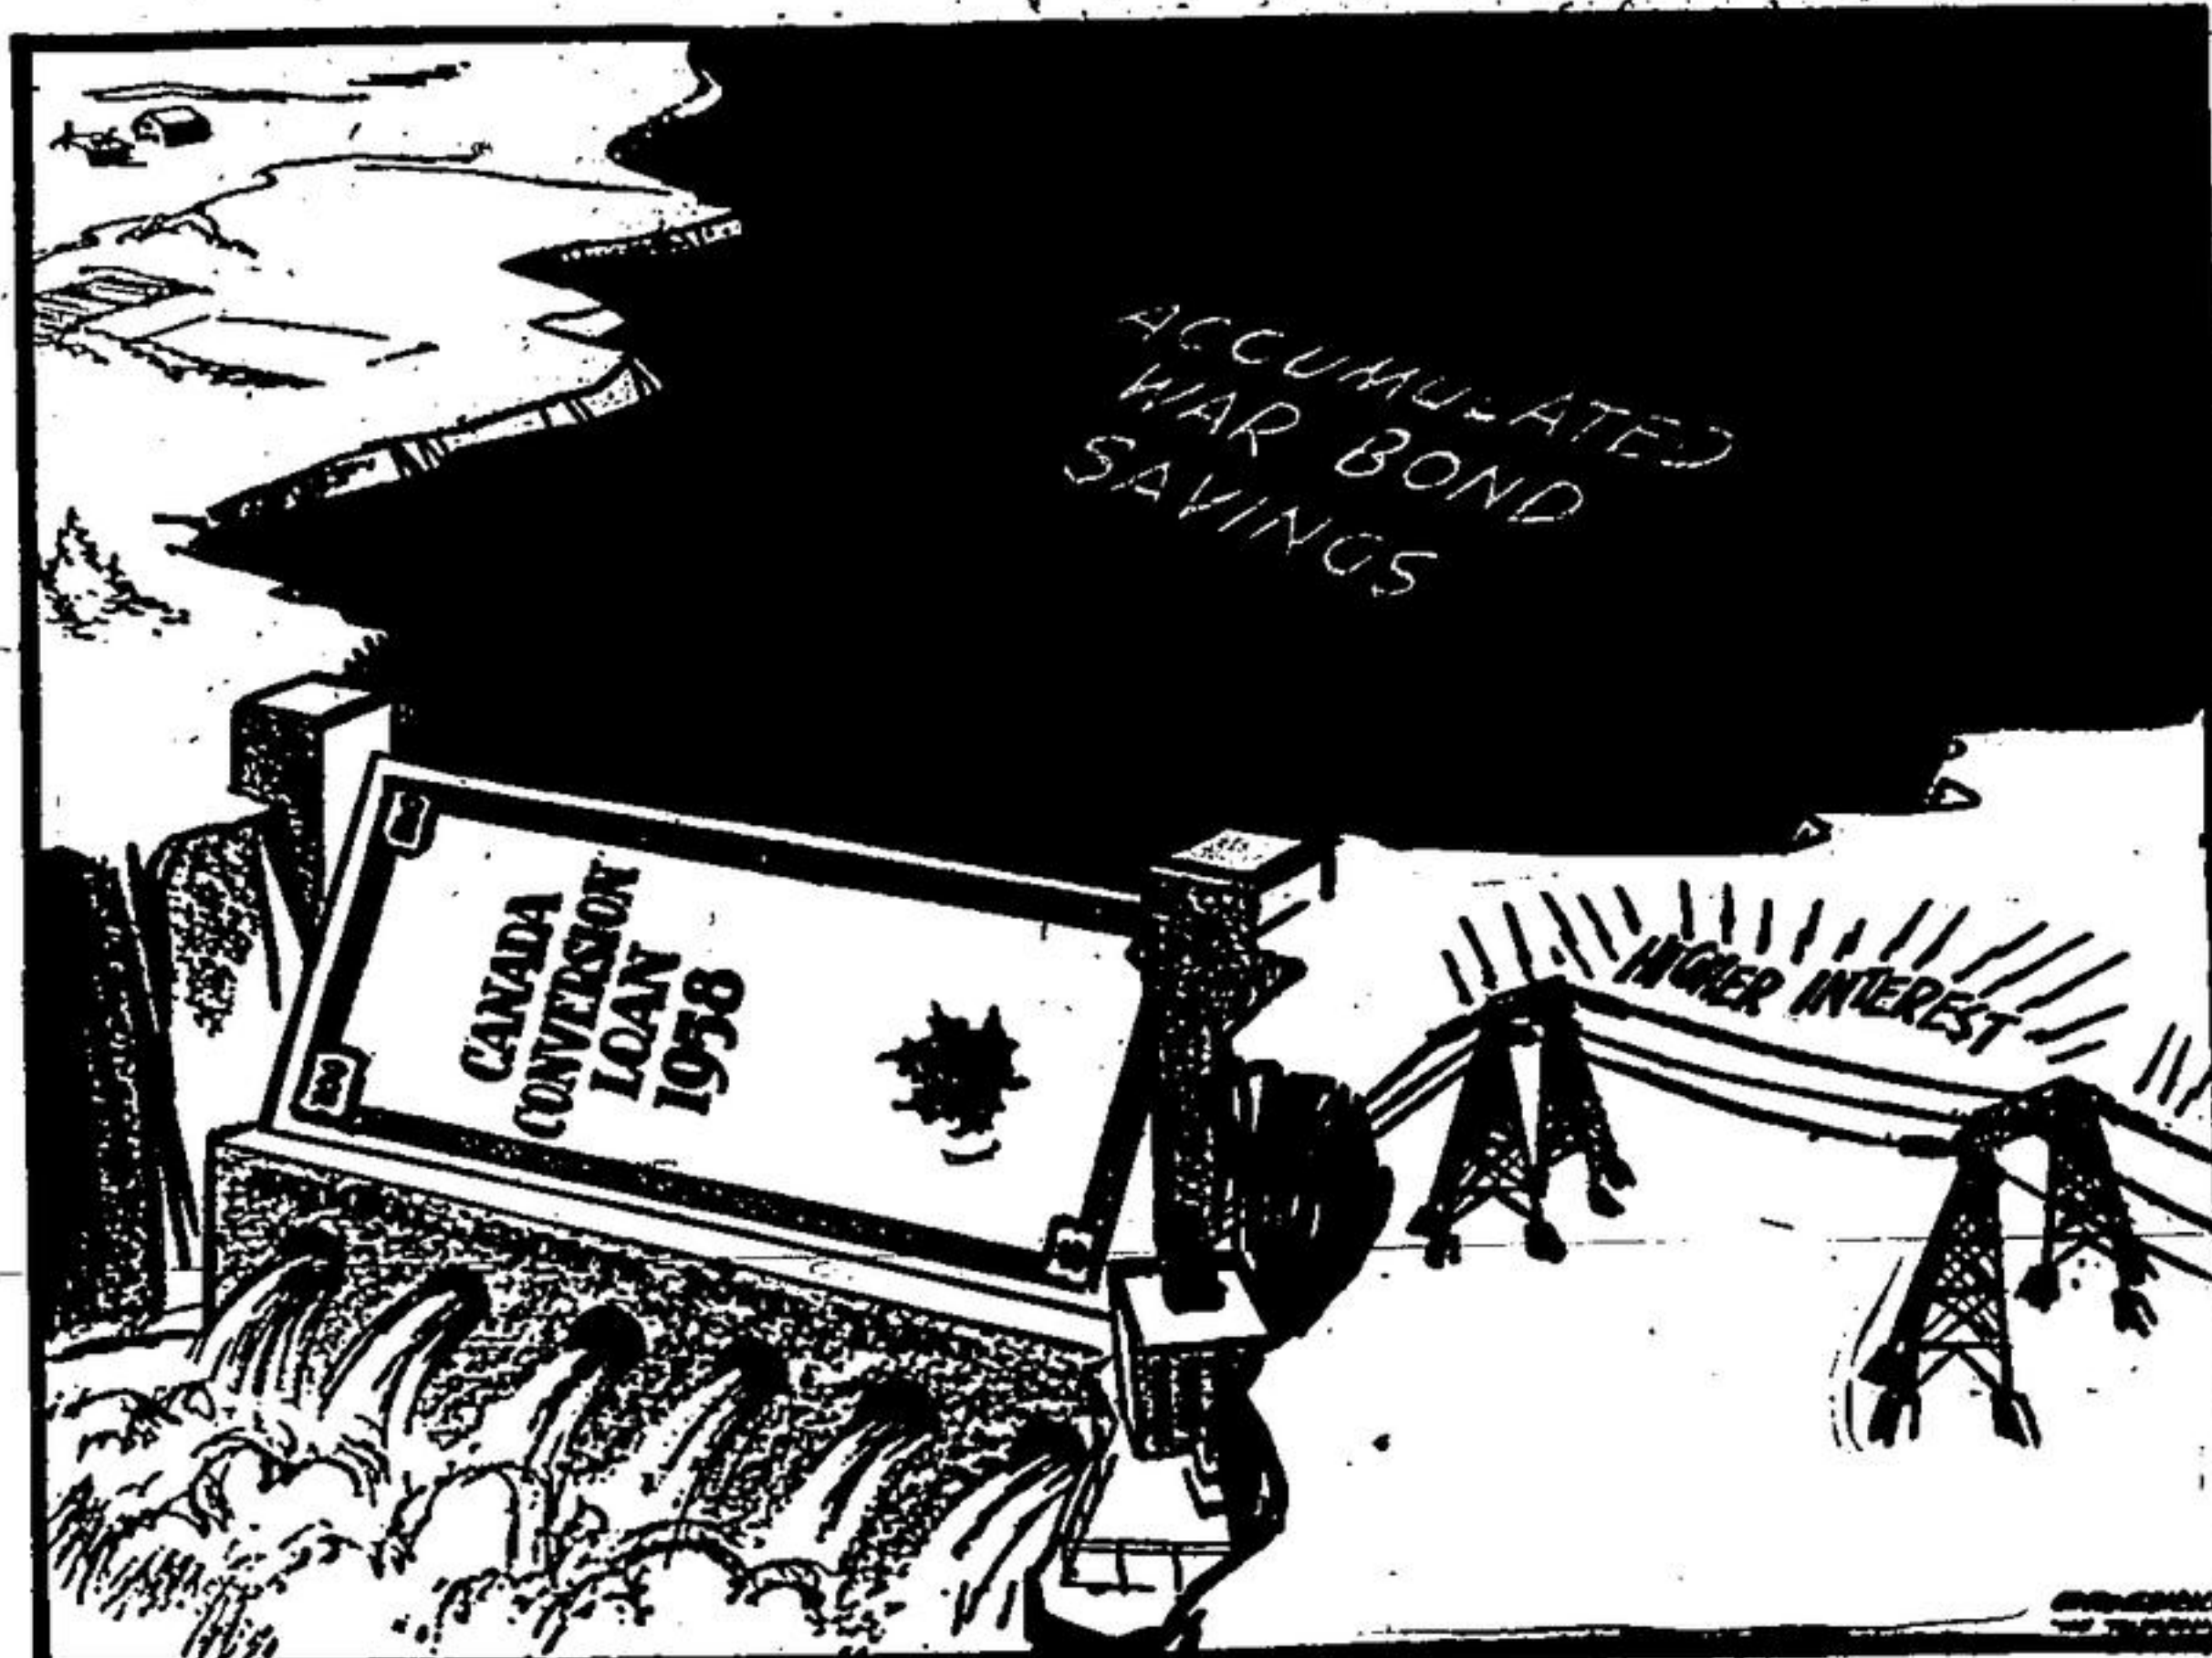

Four children, 16 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren survive her. Her son William lives at R. R. 3, Acton; her three daughters are Mrs. Alf Winter (Elva), R. R. 1, Rockwood; Mrs. Chester Allan (Florence) R. R. 2, Acton, and Mrs. Lloyd Burt (Eileen) R. R. 2, Acton.

Rev. A. McKenzie officiated at the funeral service in the Rumley Funeral Home on Friday afternoon, August 22nd.

Six nephews were pallbearers.

Clarence Gamble, Orwell Johnston, Burt Nellis, Cecil Nellis, Henry Nellis and Mansell Nellis. Four grandsons, Laverne Allan, Lawrence Johnston, Harvey Burt, and Gordon Allan, were flower bearers.

Interment was in Fairview Cemetery, Acton.
