One of the senior newspaper publishers attending the Canadian Weekly Newspapers association convention last week in Toronto was Elgin Harris, 83, who sold his business a few years ago, at which time he was made a life member of the CWNA.

the association was first formed, he hasn't missed attending a convention — and to look at this active and vigorous former Burlington publisher, he will be a regular at many more conventions.

Parade, Sports, Corn Roast are Highlights Community Centre

Georgetown Community Centre's first annual field day was a success Saturday.

Heavily laced with the excitement that accompanies final play-offs the gala day failed to be dampened by the threat of rain which hung over the morning events. A motor cavalcade left the park at noon and made a tour of the town carrying all the competing ball teams, eventually ending at Chapel Street public school where the teams formed for a march to the official opening ceremony in front of the grandstand.

The Community Centre president, John Hole was introduced by Red Asseltine and after a brief address introduced Deputy Reeve Walter Gray, who attended on behalf of Mayor Jack Armstrong who was out of town for the day.

In the girls' ball games which started off the afternoon activities, Mrs. James Brunner's Spunkies defeated Mrs. Elmer Walker's Satellites by a 17 to 5 score, with Jo Anne Kemshead collecting a special award for rapping out the first home run of the ball game. In the younger boys' league of 8 and 9 year olds George Ventry's Miami Club had a perfect day by winning both ends of a double header by decisive margins, dumping Montreal 14 to 7 and outslugging Toronto 20 to 6.

A seven strikeout pitching performance by Donnie Norton helped Cincinnati down the hard luck Earl Walters' Phillies, 10 to 4 in the 10-12 year old circuit. The winners were managed by Cliff Norton and Cliff Davison while Bud Hyde directed the Pittsburgh team which held an 8 to 7 lead over Bill Martin's Dodgers, and were declared winners when rain terminated the contest after three and two thirds innings.

A corn roast planned for after the games seemed doomed by the sudden downpour, but a determined group of cooks including John Hole, Bill Korzack, Bruce Wilson, Denny Wright, Ray Robson and many others stood out in the rain to prepare the corn for the hungry youngsters. The concluding dance in the Armoury however, did suffer from the bad weather, and attendance was far below the number expected.

The Community Centre Queen chosen at the dance was Mrs. John Mathies of 5 Orchard Blvd. who received a gold sash and a bouquet of roses donated by Norton Floral as well as a number of valuable gift vouchers from McClure's, Young's Pharmacy, Cotton Bros., Silver's and Wigo TV. The winner of the trip to New York, first

"TITE-LAP" PROTECTION locks out the weather The perfect fit of overlapping ribs in adjoining sheets of Eastern Steel's galvanized "Tite-Lap" roofing and siding guarantees weathertightness for your farm building. Both at side and end laps, this snug "Tite-Lap" keeps out driving wind and rain. "Tite-Lap" can be laid right over old wooden shingle or asphalt roofing without removing the original roofing material. Each 5-rib sheet covers a full 32" width. Eastern Steel manufactures several distinct types of metal roofing and siding—each designed with a different application in mind. To help you choose the right covering, write today for your free copy of Bulletin 140, showing the best roofing, siding and accessories for the covering job you have in mind. Remember, when applying Eastern Steel roofing or siding be sure to use "Froston" spiral shank Lock-Hod nails—the roofing nails with the lead seal underneath the head which plugs the nailhole with rustproof, weathertight lead.

They are also grateful to Mr. Reed, who so kindly acted as judge, and Mrs. Crichton, who judged home made candy, Rev. A. Calder who sang and any others who helped make the event such a success.
