School Contractors Tool Theft Victims

Approximately $1,000 worth of power tools and carpenters' tools were reported stolen on Tuesday, September 9th from Holy Cross School on Maple Ave. The police were notified of the theft by Harold Theriault, a foreman with the construction company working at the school and following an investigation the time of the break-in was established at between 11 p.m. and 12 midnight. The thieves gained entry to the new school by pulling a board off a door at the north end of the building. PCs Dan Whitson and Ted Scott investigated.

Bob McMaster Heads
Glen Cemetery Board

Bob McMaster was returned as president of the Glen Williams Cemetery Board on Monday, September 8th when the board met for an election of officers in the town hall. Others returned to office include: Mrs. Vern Kirby, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Bob McMaster, George Sargent, Tom Hill, Curly Wheeler, Howard Garvin and Vern Kirby. The meeting was not well attended and what was to have been the main item of business, the hiring of a caretaker, could only be discussed since there had been no applications received. Action will go ahead, however, with the levelling of a new section of the cemetery acquired recently from Sheridan Nurseries, and grass seed will again be planted in some parts of the cemetery. A bank statement was also read at the meeting to the end of June showing a good balance.

Widowed Two Months
Mrs. J. Edwards Dies

A widow of less than two months, Mrs. Joseph Edwards, 62, died suddenly on Labour Day while visiting in Glen Williams with her daughter, Mrs. William Symons. A native of Dudley, England, she was the former Ruth Evans, and came to Canada before her marriage 45 years ago. She lived for a short time in Newmarket, then moving to Toronto where Mr. Edwards was employed with the T. Eaton Co. until he retired. They lived at 382 Balliol St. Mr. Edwards died on August 5th. Surviving are three children, Mrs. L. Coe, (Margaret), and Ronald of Pickering and Mrs. Symons (Jean) of Glen Williams; 9 grandchildren; and a brother and sister, Mrs. Jean Willis and Frank Evans, Newmarket. The Rev. Wright of St. Cuthbert's Church conducted the funeral service at the Newbigging Funeral Home in Toronto and interment was in York Cemetery.

SILVER-WOOD
SHOWS TRIP PICTURES
CALIFORNIA, WEST INDIES

The first fall meeting of the Silver Wood W.I. was held on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. W. R. Norton with the vice president, Mrs. Bert Corbett in the chair. It was particularly well attended, and the ladies were glad to have several visitors. After the opening ode and the Mary Stewart Collect, roll call was answered by naming an Ontario county and county town. A donation was made to the Bursary set up by the District, and also a sum was set aside to buy something needed for the playground of the Stone School. A committee was named to arrange for the fall fairs coming up and is composed of Mrs. R. Corbett, Mrs. G. Burt, Mrs. W. F. Earle, Mrs. W. R. Norton, and Mrs. H. Marchington. The latter two are also to attend the area convention to be held at Guelph on September 24th and 25th. Mrs. D. W. Shier was convener for the meeting and Miss Moore gave the Motto "You don't find time, you make it" in her usual interesting and capable manner.

treasurer, Mr. Charles James, financial chairman, John Findlay. General committee comprises Ron Culp, Glen Scott, Sam Gisby, Jack Noble and Ed Findlay. Brian Sprack is Cubmaster, assisted by Ralph Sheppard and Mike Fairman. This is the first time in Limehouse history that there has been a movement of this kind and these fourteen charter members of the Pack have a wonderful opportunity for growth.

British Stage Actress Starts Drama School

Something new in the Georgetown district is the Long Acre Theatre School - Workshop which has been launched by Mrs. Elva Newton, who, with her husband, Maurice lives at Long Acres Farm Campbellville. Under her professional name of Elva Bell, Mrs. Newton is a graduate of the Royal Academy of Dramatic Art, London and the Embassy School of Acting. She had her own repertory theatre and company in London and has acted in many West End plays, Shakespearean productions and radio dramas in Britain. Mrs. Newton plans courses in acting, mime, and make-up. Students will read Broadway and London plays, participate in studio productions, and it's hoped to do two productions this term - "Bell, Book, and Candle" at Halloween and "The Holly and the Ivy" at Christmas. If enough children enrol, she also plans a children's play at Christmas. Teachers with Mrs. Newton's experience are not plentiful, and the district is fortunate in having a trained professional available to teach. Anyone interested in dramatic training should contact her immediately and enrol in the class.

LIMEHOUSE FORMS GROUP COMMITTEE FOR SCOUTS

The 1st Cub and Scout pack of Limehouse is now a reality. At a meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Findlay, Limehouse, last Thursday evening the temporary Group Committee which has been working with the boys this summer was dissolved and the new regular committee formed and a charter applied for. Mrs. Ed Findlay is chairman, Mrs. Charles James, secretary;

Mrs. Shier introduced Mr. Ben Case, who showed pictures taken on two of his recent trips, the first to California and up the coast to B.C., and the second to Florida and the British West Indies. They were much appreciated by his audience.

Mrs. T. Appleyard and Mrs. D. Williamson assisted the hostess during a social half hour. Mr. and Mrs. George Burt, Earl and Ross, recently had an enjoyable trip to Kingston, and on north to Algonquin Park.

HORNBY

INSTITUTE MEMBERS HAVE SEPT. MEETING AT OAKVILLE

Several carloads of members of Hornby W.I. travelled to the home of Mrs. Birdie Neelands in Oakville for their September meeting on the 10th instant. Thirteen members were present with five visitors. Mrs. Coulton, the president, opened the meeting and expressed appreciation on behalf of the Institute members, to Mrs. Neelands for inviting the Institute to her new home. The Ode was sung and the Mary Stewart Collect was read by Mrs. Coulton. The minutes were read and approved and the financial report given. The date for the autumn bus trip has been arranged and is October 22nd. Correspondence was read, and the committee for the Milton Fair reported that everything is ready for the booth.

At this point the meeting was handed over to Mrs. Percy Merry and Mrs. Milton Brown, conveners for Historical Research and Current Events. The roll call "Old things I have seen die out," brought forth memories of several things which were used in the past. This was followed by a humorous poem. A paper on the motto: "The only old person is he who no longer desires to live" was prepared by Mrs. J. Wallace and read by Mrs. Brown in the absence of Mrs. Wallace. Mrs. Archie King gave a short account of current events.

Mrs. Merry was the speaker for the program and gave a review of the book, "The Stream Runs Fast," by Nellie McClung, which everyone thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. Merry ended her talk with a short humorous account from one of Nellie McClung's other books. Mrs. Brown conducted a contest in which everyone took part. The tea hour followed putting a finishing touch to a most enjoyable
