Name Three Life Members Legion Auxiliary Dinner

Thirty years of community service was marked by members of the Ladies Auxiliary, Canadian Legion, on September 11th at a banquet in the Legion auditorium.

Presentation of a cheque to the branch, and introduction of three local life members, Mrs. William Hadley, Mrs. George Alcott and Mrs. Mary Morrow were high lights of the dinner at which Mrs. Charles Day presided as president.

Mrs. M. Richardson, provincial W.A. president, was guest speaker following the toast list which included a toast to the Queen by Mrs. Perc Chaplin; to the Auxiliary by Mrs. William Roney, with Mrs. Roy McGill replying; to Fallen Comrades by James Murphy; and to the Legion by Mrs. William Roney, with president Harvey Garvin replying.

A social and dancing concluded the evening.

Starting with 17 members, the auxiliary has grown tremendously and is a vital force in community life. In the early days, the ladies assisted materially with financial aid to the Legion, raising money by making quilts, eucres, raffles and bazaars. Early members recall that to purchase a set of minute books, a large vegetable marrow was raffled and brought the necessary $3.50.

During the years, the auxiliary has equipped the kitchen, bought tables and chairs, and many other items for the Legion hall. The ladies looked after the hydro bill, a sizeable item, and have catered to innumerable private and public banquets in the hall.

Mrs. Thomas Grieve is charter president and she has been succeeded by Mrs. William Roney, the late Mrs. Fred Brasby, Mrs. John Kemshead, Mrs. William Hadley, Mrs. C. E. Stacey, Mrs. Charles Parton, Mrs. Alex Taylor and Mrs. Charles Day.

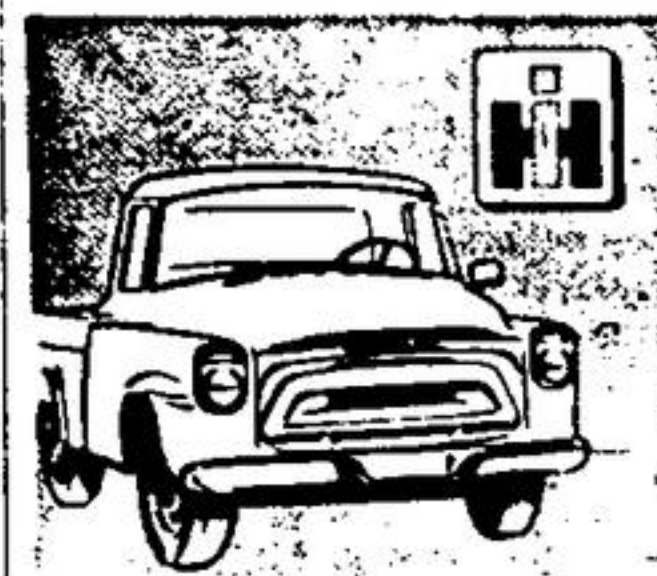

Auxiliary ladies take an active interest in the Poppy Day appeal, which has been headed for many years by Mrs. Grieve. During World War 2, the ladies served nobly on the home front, doing everything they could for the men and women in uniform.

Doug Tucker Named President of CYO

A long talked about Catholic Youth Organization became a reality Sunday when young people of Holy Cross Church met in the church hall for their initial meeting. Twenty five local young people and a good number from the visiting Brampton CYO were present at the assembly.

Appointed to the organization's executive by Father Thomas Van Laer were Doug Tucker, president; Jerry Van Klink, vice president; Dorothy Burns, secretary, and Rosalind Capuano, treasurer. The first meeting was devoted to discussion concerning the activities of the group which were outlined by Father Van Laer.

The meetings will be held every second Sunday evening commencing at 8 p.m.

MARRIAGES

CARMICHAEL — CAMPBELL — On Friday, September 19th in Richmond Hill United Church; by the Rev. Charles Higginson, Anne Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Lewis Campbell to James Ian Carmichael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Carmichael of Arrnprior.

DEAMUDE — REYNOLDS — On Saturday, September 20th, 1958 at Knox Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, Mrs. Opal E. Reynolds to Mr. Frank V. Deamude. Rev. Alex Calder officiated.

MEMORIALS

HILTS—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mary Hilts, who passed away Sept. 28th, 1957. I little knew when I woke that morn The sorrow the day would bring. The call was sudden, the shock severe, To part with one I loved so dear. So to you who have a mother, cherish her with care, You'll never know the heartache, 'till you see her vacant chair.

—Always remembered by daughter Doris, son-in-law Eric and grandchildren Betty, Ricky, Keith and Eve.

HILTS—In loving memory of a dear mother and grandmother, Mary Hilts, who passed away Sept. 28th, 1957. We think of her in silence. No one can see us weep, But many a silent tear is shed, When others are asleep. Please, God, forgive the silent tear, the constant wish that she was near, There are others, yes, we know, but she was ours and we loved her so.

—Sadly missed and always remembered by daughter, Edith, son-in-law Jack and grandchildren.

MAYBANKS—In loving memory of a dear husband and father: William James Maybanks, who died Sept. 27th, 1952. Nothing can ever take away The love a heart holds dear; Fond memories linger every day. Remembrance keeps him near.

—Ever remembered by wife Lily and son Arthur.

McGUIGAN—In loving memory of a dear friend, Art McGuigan, who died as result of an accident on Sept. 22nd, 1957. Many a lonely heartache, Often a silent tear, But always a beautiful memory Of one I loved so dear.

—Sadly missed and always remembered by Pierrette Pruneau.

McGUIGAN—In loving memory of our beloved son Arthur, who died as result of an accident on Sept. 22nd, 1957. Beside your grave we often stand, With heart both crushed and sore; But in the gloom the sweet words come

"Not lost but gone before." God knows how much we miss you. He counts the tears we shed, And whispers, "He only sleeps." Your loved one is not dead, So we'll be brave, dear Arthur, And pray to God each day, And when he calls us home to you, Your smile will guide the way.

—Sadly missed and always remembered by Mom and Dad.

McGUIGAN—In loving memory of our beloved brother Arthur, who died as result of an accident on Sept. 22nd, 1957. Gone dear brother, gone forever, But you left us to remember, None on earth can take your place.

A happy home we once enjoyed, How sweet the memory still, But death has left a loneliness The world can never fill.

—Sadly missed and always remembered by brother Bob, sisters Marg and Betty.

McWHIRTER — In loving memory of Mrs. Margaret McWhirter, wife of the late Mr. Edward McWhirter, who passed away in Georgetown, September 25th, 1940. — Fondly remembered by her family.

CARDS OF THANKS

CASELEY—The family of the late Mrs. Caseley wish to express their thanks and appreciation to the many relatives, friends and neighbours for the kindness and sympathy shown us in the loss of our beloved mother. — The Family.

FONE — I would like to express my deep and sincere appreciation to all our neighbours and other friends who helped us with their acts of kindness, words of sympathy and floral tributes at the time of our sad bereavement in the loss of a husband and father. Mrs. Sidney Fone and family.

BALLINAFAD
BETH MCENERY ACTON FAIR PUMPKIN QUEEN

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald McLean were Mr. and Mrs. Palmer of Guelph, Mrs. Margaret York of Toronto, and Mrs. A. D. McLean of Acton.

Dr. and Mrs. Clifford Reid observed their 34th wedding anniversary on Sunday and they entertained at a dinner party and family gathering. There were 16 present, including relatives from St. Catharines, Niagara on the Lake and Toronto. Mrs. Reid's mother Mrs. Black was able to enjoy the festivities with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray McBride and son Paul left on Monday to return to his studies at Emmanuel College. They will be returning to the manse each week end from Friday night until Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. L. McLaughlin and Mr. and Mrs. M. McEwan of Kilsyth in the Owen Sound district visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. McLaughlin.

Mrs. Edith McKay of Peterboro is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wright.

Young people from Melville, Churchill and Ballinafad churches met at the home of Jean and Peter Lawr for the Sunday evening YPU meeting with an attendance of 22. The worship service was conducted by Beth McEnery and during the business session, arrangements were made for a corn roast and an evening of entertainment for Friday evening at the home of Ted Freeman. The topic on "Immigration" was given by Dianne Swindlehurst after which a discussion was held. Lunch was served by the hostess and a social time was enjoyed by all.

The CGIT group held a corn roast at the home of June Given on Monday night. The girls enjoyed singing, on the spot games and stunts around a lively camp fire beside a pond in the moonlight, and the weather being just perfect for the occasion. Mrs. Black thanked Mrs. Given and June for their generous hospitality and the evening came to a close with the singing of taps.

There was a splendid attendance at church on Sunday for the Rally Day service. The Sunday school joined with the congregation, each class sitting with their teacher and the co-superintendents, Messrs. Ross Shortill and Duncan Gibson assisted Mr. McBride in the worship with two other members of the Sunday School also taking part. Sharon Allan read a story to the children and Ann Shortill sang a solo. The junior choir led in the singing, and Mr. McBride gave a very fine message, urging the parents to bring their children to church and to spend more time in their homes following up the training they receive at Sunday School.

Congratulations to Miss Beth McEnery who again this year won the title of Pumpkin Queen at the Acton Fair.
