Craft Club Exhibition
Slated for November

The regular meeting of the Arts and Crafts was held at the home of Mrs. Arthur Beamount, Glen Williams, on September 17th. Mrs. D. W. Baxter presided over a short business period. Final arrangements were made for the Tea and Sale to be held on November 15th in Knox Church Hall.

It was of interest to note that a member, Mrs. A. M. Baxter, 52 King St., had been invited to give a demonstration of spinning at Cookstown Centennial Fair which was opened by Prime Minister Diefenbaker.

The guest speaker was Mrs. Larry Maughan, 71 Sargent Road, who gave an interesting talk on occupational therapy.

At the close of the business meeting, tea was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Earl Trow, Miss Wilma Stull, Miss Rosemary Jordan, Miss Gladys Fraser and Miss Margery Mackenzie.

OBSERVATIONS

by Albert Kershaw

During this early summer we went to a shopping plaza, and while the womenfolk were doing their shopping, I sat on one of the many forms or seats and soaked up some of the sunshine. Close by were two boys, about 10 or 12 years of age, making an attempt to sell tickets at a quarter each, in aid of a local charity. They made very few sales and were inclined to call it a day. I called them over to where I was sitting and explained to them that their approach was away out of line.

To them both I said, "Instead of saying to the people you come in contact with "buy a ticket mister, will you," or "buy a ticket, missus, will you," why not try to reword your request and say to the men folk "Please sir, do you want to buy a ticket" and to the women folk "please, lady, do you want to buy a ticket." So they left me and mingled with the crowds.

Well, the womenfolk were ready for home and as I wheeled the car from the plaza, I heard a shout and lo and behold the two boys ran along side the car and said to me "Thanks a lot, mister, it really worked, we have sold more tickets the last two hours than we sold all morning. Thanks, again, yes sir, it really worked!"

It's not what you say, but how you say it that makes all the difference, and people can be approached and when all explanations are in order it is very rewarding to notice the results. Speaking of results reminds me of the time when the lady went to a certain chain store to purchase, along with her other groceries, a cake, and she said to the attendant "is this cake fresh," and he said back to her "lady, it's so fresh it will talk back to you." . . . and the sale was completed, with smiles from both parties concerned.

Say, do you notice when you are eating a meal or drinking any kind of liquid that every time you bend your elbow your mouth opens. It's true. Try it and see.

When it was mentioned in a previous issue about us living "better," some of you would remember when we went to the movie house on Wesleyan Street in the 1920's and saw a silent movie. Who would have thought that 30 years or more later we would have, top notch entertainment, many topics of discussion, advice in the art of cooking, and "talking pictures" right in our own homes. The more you think about it the greater the impact. See you next week . . .
