

4-H HOMEMAKERS DOING GOOD WORK
J. E. W.

A recent release from Miss Florence P. Eadie, supervisor of 4-H Homemaking Clubs for Ontario, reveals that Halton 4-H Homemakers, unusual did an excellent job in the 4-H Homemaking Program at the CNE. In Part 1 (Judging and Activities) we note in the last prize group (those comprising all members who attained 80 per cent and who have completed six 4-H Homemaking Clubs and attended 75 per cent of the club meetings) the names of Diane Wrigglesworth of Horony; Jean Britton, Acton R. R. 1, Shirley Hunt, Burlington,

R. R. 2, and Nancy McKenzie, of Milton R. R. 3.

In the second prize group (those who attained 70 per cent and who have completed at least four 4-H Homemaking Clubs and attended 70 per cent of the club meetings) we note the names of Marilyn Wilson, Ashgrove; Margaret Morrison, Acton R. R. 2, Jean Moffat, Rockwood R. R. 2; Helen Auckland, Georgetown R. R. 3; and Margaret Whewell, of Milton. Then in Part 2, Inter county demonstrations and skits, we note that Halton 4-H Homemakers were ably represented by the team of Marilyn Wilson and Diane Wrigglesworth in a demonstration entitled "The Well Equipped Cloth-Closet."

We extend congratulations to all

DAVIS—In loving memory of Ruth Davis, who died October 3, 1954.

There is no parting from those we love,
No distance can divide.
For today in memory's garden

Each dawning day a thought of her,

At eventide a prayer;
And in the hearts that loved her
She will always be there.

SCHOFIELD—In loving memory of a dear father, Ellis Schofield who died September 30th, 1957. Often a leaf blown by the wind Falls on the ocean and sinks below.

Tis never lost; where'er fate blow
The imprint of its touch stays behind.

And so with life, whatever its kind,
It shapes a place, 'tis destined so,
If in peace or turmoil it should go,
Its influence lives, as 'twas destined.

—Ever remembered by Ken, Mabel and grandchildren Jean Anne and Billy.

SCHOFIELD—In loving memory of a dear husband, Ellis Schofield, who died on September 30th, 1957.
