LIMEHOUSE, PRESBYTERIANS OBSERVE RALLY SUNDAY

A good attendance was observed when the Sunday School children joined the regular congregation for Rally Day at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday. Mrs. Roughley and Mrs. Gishy had a choir of sixteen children, Mary Lou Brown, Gail and Linda Gilmore singing also as a trio. Peter Glynn played "Faith of our Fathers" on his flute accompanied by Mrs. Roughley at the organ during the offering. Eugene Turner read the Scripture Lesson. Rev. A. Calder presented awards for Sunday School attendance to Dorothy Kirkpatrick, Billy Sanford, David Roughley, Peter Glynn, Fred Gishy, Betty Anne Brown, Joy Patterson, Mary Lou Brown, Linda Linham, Robbie Roughley, Carl Sinclair, Teddy Brown, Stanley McEnery.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick whose mother, Mrs. James Standish, passed away last Thursday and burial was in Stewarttown cemetery on Saturday. The Earl Scotts entertained some sixteen guests at dinner on Monday night in honour of Miss Trudy Scott's birthday. It was also the birthday of her cousin, Bud Haines, one of the guests.

RESTAURANT MAN BACK FROM TRIP TO HOMELAND

Stan Wade, proprietor of Corner Cupboard Restaurant, returned home recently after a three-week vacation in England and in North Wales, where he visited his mother Mrs. E. Wade at Abergele. Mr. Wade included Blackpool, Birmingham and Liverpool, in his holiday tour.

The crossing was the first one for Mr. Wade since he moved here six years ago. He travelled both way by plane, returning aboard the famed Britannia which carried Princess Margaret here for her tour.

The Herald Office is open Monday. It helps greatly in compiling the weekly edition when news reports and advertising copy is submitted on that day.

$1,000 Damage As Car, Truck Collide

Gerald Gilkes of R. R. 1, Georgetown and Roy Giles of R. R. 1, Gowanstown, were fortunate to escape with little more than a shaking up when the vehicles they were driving collided on No. 7 highway just past the Limehouse sideroad yesterday afternoon. Gilkes was driving a 1952 Dodge owned by Hewson Motors and Giles was driving a '56 Dodge dump truck. Total damage was estimated at close to $1,000 by Cst. Ray Andress who investigated the smash. It was reported at about 4.10 p.m. Both vehicles were westbound when the accident occurred and the truck came to a halt on its roof in the north ditch.

Harold Pettigrew Was Beeton Merchant

A Beeton businessman, Harold George Pettigrew, 62 died in Stephenson Memorial Hospital, Alliston on September 24th. He had been in failing health for the past six years, and succumbed to a stroke.

Mr. Pettigrew was a native of Norval, son of the late George and Elizabeth Thompson Pettigrew. He spent his early years in Norval and Toronto, served overseas with a machine gun corps in World War I, and farmed at Norval after the war. After his marriage to Beatrice Maxwell, they moved to Toronto where he was in business for twenty years. For the past twelve years he had operated a hardware store in Beeton.

He served for several terms as a village councillor in Beeton, was a member of the Anglican church and Spry Masonic lodge. He leaves his wife, who was a schoolteacher at Norval until their marriage in 1926.

A Masonic funeral service was held in his home on Friday evening, and a family service on Saturday before leaving for Norval where Rev. J. E. Maxwell and Rev. R. G. Matthews, Beeton conducted a service in St. Paul's Anglican Church. Pallbearers were J. A. Wright, W. Hoover, J. H. Glassford, E. B. Bell, C. English and William Watson. Interment was in Hillcrest Cemetery, Norval. Friends attended the service from Collingwood, Toronto, Caledon, Queenston, Paris, Oakville, Orangeville, Barrie, Oshawa, Milton, Brampton and Georgetown.

Hungarian Native Tells Of Life in That Country

The Terra Cotta Women's Institute held their September meeting at the home of Mrs. F. Macdonald. The president, Mrs. A. H. McKane opened the meeting with the Ode followed by the Mary Stewart Collect. The motto "all that is best is not that which is National but Universal" was taken by Mrs. H. Dolson in which she said "a bridge between the countries of the world can be formed in the schools of today and it is well to remember that if we use the resources we have we will receive the best results."

The roll call "Who's Who and Why in Canada" was well responded to by the members. In the business portion of the meeting it was decided to sponsor a 4-H Homemaking Club. Mrs. Clarence Anderson and Mrs. C. G. Bishop were appointed to be the leaders. Reservations are to be made for a delegate to attend the Area convention in November. Fifteen dollars was voted towards the expenses of the delegate. A paper prepared by Mrs. Eric Leslie on Current events was read by Mrs. Clarence Anderson.

Mrs. Hoech, guest of the meeting was introduced by Mrs. C. G. Bishop. Mrs. Hoech and her husband and family have been residents of Canada for the past eight years. She spoke on the way of life in Hungary, her native country, telling how the boys and girls are each taught what is considered essential in the making of a successful home of their own. She also described a Hungarian wedding.

A contest was conducted by Mrs. Fred Sharpe. A vote of thanks by Miss E. Macdonald was given to all those taking part in the program and the meeting was brought to a close.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. T. E. Macdonald on October 14th. This is a change of place and date and Miss E. Macdonald will speak on her trip to Europe.

Hospital Insurance Machinery in Motion

With the enrolment of Ontario's citizens in the Provincial Hospital Insurance plan now in full swing, one of the busiest spots in the Province these days is the red brick building on the southeast corner of Toronto's Avenue Road and St. Clair Avenue.

In its 50 years history the building has made many notable contributions to the life of the Province. In its time it has been a church training school, a university residence, a wartime CWAC barracks and is still headquarters of the Ontario Hospital Association and Blue Cross plan.

Now it has taken on a new and additional role as the hub of the Ontario Hospital Insurance Plan. Into the Ontario Hospital Services Commission offices there are pouring every day thousands of applications for enrolment in the Plan which begins operating next January 1st. They come from individual Ontarians from Point Pelee to Pickle Creek, from remote Indian trading posts in the Northland and from residents holidaying abroad anxious not to miss the deadline of September 30th the closing date for individuals to have protection effective January 1.

The rush of applications for Pay-Direct enrolment has brought with it one headache for the Commission. Many people who are qualified for enrolment through a group are so eager to register that they are sending in individual applications as well. This has meant a lot of extra work, including the job of refunding cheques and money orders. Applications are flowing in, also, from groups of all kinds, ranging from small firms with only half-a-dozen workers to vast concerns registering thousands of employees at one time and rural medical co-operatives and other associations acting as Collectors for their members.

Altogether the Commission expects to register something like five million of Ontario's 5,000,000 population by the time the plan swings into operation next New Year's Day.

The huge job of processing all these registrations and sending out Hospital Insurance Certificates demands a staff of well over 600. The Tabulating Department, for instance, contains one of the largest IBM set-ups in operation in Canada, employing more than 100 men and girls punching key cards and keeping records for every insured resident. Another large department is working overtime to keep pace with the flood of cheques and applications from individuals enrolling on a Pay-Direct basis.

Not all the applications are by mail. From 8.30 in the morning until 4.30 p.m. the reception hall is never empty of people calling in to sign up or to ask questions about the Hospital Insurance plan.

And, on the floor above, a battery of highly trained girls sit around all day and never stop talking. These are the girls with a smile in their voices, the Commission's celebrated Telephone Answering Service, to which all telephone inquiries from the general public are channelled. These twelve girls each handle around 100 callers a day, settling doubts, soothing fears and, occasionally, smoothing over a ruffled temper. Their calmness and courtesy, even towards the end of a hot and hectic day, is all part of the Commission's desire to be of service to the people for whom their Hospital Insurance plan has been designed — the residents of Ontario.
