Trafalgar Annexation Sought by Oakville

Oakville council at a special meeting Monday passed a by-law calling for the annexation of more than 30,000 acres of southern Trafalgar Township.

Council's action was the second such bid in five years. In 1953 Oakville applied to the Ontario Municipal Board to annex 6,000 acres of the township, including the huge Ford of Canada automobile plant.

The action followed a closed meeting Saturday at which town solicitor John Dewey reported on a recent hearing at which Trafalgar Township annexed the village of Bronte. Council opposition to the annexation bid was overcome at this meeting and council voted unanimously today to start annexation proceedings.

As a result of today's application, Oakville with a population of 10,000, a $22,000,000 assessment and a debenture debt of about 22 per cent will attempt to annex a large industrial portion of Trafalgar. The area has a population of more than 20,000, more than $55,000,000 assessment and a debenture debt of about 17 per cent.

McGilvray Crescent Birthday Party

A table decorated with china animals filled with pink and white flowers was the centre of attraction at the birthday party held at the home of Kathy MacGilvray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. MacGilvray 54 McGillvray Crescent, on Friday afternoon after school. It was Kathy's fifth birthday and the animals had been given to her as a gift when she was born. Her guests were all from McGillvray Crescent and were Linda and Sheila Caperauld, Douglas Simpkins, Gail and Debbie Butler, Nancy Ellen and Ruth Faulkner, Ross Yabiro, Ian Gordon, Noelle Hankey, Susan Davidson, Stephen and Dolly Settrington and her brother John. Gay Clarridge assisted Mrs. MacGilvray with the affair. All the children brought their bicycles and a feature of the party was decorating them with pink and blue streamers and a parade around the block.

Concert, Films Entertain Residents Halton Manor

Lovely choral singing and melodious band music were a delight for the residents of Halton Centennial Manor on Tuesday evening, September 23rd, when about twenty men and women belonging to the Oakville Corps of the Salvation Army presented a concert in the dining room.

All the musicians were under the talented leadership of Lieut. E. Tillsley, who is the officer in charge of the Citadel at Oakville, who also acted as chairman and announced the numbers.

The singing of one verse of the hymn, "What a Friend we have in Jesus" and prayer by Mrs. Skipper were followed by a fine musical program.

The band played several stirring marches, and although not up to full strength, made a very fine impression on the audience. A cornet solo by Eraset Jensen and a euphonium solo by Bill Castle also pleased the audience greatly.

A chorus of nine ladies and gentlemen sang a number of sacred numbers in beautiful harmony, which were greatly admired. Also greatly admired were the piano accompaniments for these choral selections played by Gordon Castle. Mrs. Tillsley and her sister, Miss Ethel Pitcher, sang a very acceptable duet and Carol Brown read Psalm 96 in sincere and earnest fashion.

The last march played by the band was accompanied on the bones by Mr. Norman Viggers a Manor resident. The program closed with the singing of one verse of the hymn "Abide With Me."

The musicians were thanked for this outstanding program by Mr. Stanley Allen. The serving of ginger ale and cookies brought this very enjoyable evening to a close.

On Saturday night, September 20th, three informative and enjoyable moving picture films were shown on the screen in the dining room by Mr. Stan Allen, the superintendent.

The first film, a coloured film, was called "The Beaver Makes a Comeback". It showed how the Indians of the James Bay region have been taught by government officials to allow the beaver to increase unmolested instead of causing them to become almost extinct by intensive trapping.

The second film "Cotton Made in Canada," also a coloured film, had been made in the plant of the Dominion Textile Company in Magog, Quebec, one of the 31 cotton textile mills in Canada. It showed the complete manufacing process from the raw cotton to the finished product.

The third film, made in black and white and called "Portrait of a Queen", was a moving picture story of the life of our Queen. It showed scenes of her childhood and youth and of her various tours throughout the Commonwealth.

Mr. Allen's efforts in obtaining these interesting films for the entertainment of the residents were greatly appreciated.

Several residents brought honour to the Manor by winning prizes at the Milton Fair on Saturday, September 27th.

In a special class for Halton residents only, Miss Matilda Ford won first prize for a pair of child's knitted socks and Mr. Norman Viggers won second prize in this same class. In open competition Mrs. Mary Joyce won first prize for a crocheted dolly made by a person over seventy years of age. In open competition also, Mrs. M. Smythe won second prize for crocheted afghan.

Mrs. Standish Lived 60 Years on 6th Line

Funeral service was held Saturday, September 27th at the Harold C. McClure funeral home for Mary Catharine Holland Standish. Acting pallbearers were Roy Bradley, Francis Thompson, Sam McEhan, Manley Densmore, Walter Lawson and Gilbert English, neighbours of the deceased. Interment was in Stewarttown cemetery.

Widow of J. L. Standish, who predeceased her eight years ago and daughter of John and Eliza Beth Holland, Merriton, Mrs. Standish was in her eighty-eighth year. She was born in Merriton, but resided on the 6th Line, Georgetown for the past sixty years.

A member of St. John's Anglican Church, Stewarttown, her interests were in her home, family and service to the community.

She leaves three sons and four daughters, John and Joseph, of Stewarttown, Richard, Thorold; Mrs. Sidney Kirkpatrick (Caroline), Limehouse; Beatrice at home; Mrs. James McLennan (Sarah), Milton; and Mrs. Mary Tubman, Milton; nine grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.
