Leitch-Hamilton Vows In Ballinafad United

Margaret Alice Hamilton and Ronald Samuel Leitch chose Saturday, October 4th for their wedding day in Ballinafad United Church, Rev. E. D. Snelgrove, officiated at the three o'clock ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of mauve and white carnations, asters, mums and ferns.

Mrs. Donald Adair, Brampton, sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden" before the ceremony and "I Love You Truly" afterwards, with accompaniment played by Lillian Shortill.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hamilton, R. R. 1, Glen Williams, operates her own beauty shop in Erin. Her husband, the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Leitch, Erin, is associated with his father in the fuel business.

The bride chose a full length bouffant wedding gown of white nylon net over satin, with torso-length lace bodice. The gown had a sequin-trimmed rounded neckline and wrist length sleeves. Her small crown headdress was trimmed with pearls and sequins, holding a fingertip veil. Her bouquet was red roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Kenneth Faulkner, Brampton, was her sister's matron of honour. She chose a cocktail length red velvet dress and carried blue carnations. The groom's sister, Emmylee Leitch was bridesmaid, wearing a similar style dress of royal blue velvet and carrying pink carnations. Both wore white feather handbands, white gloves and shoes. The bride was given in marriage by her father in the double ring ceremony.

Douglas Lawr, Belfountain, was groomsman and ushers were brothers-in-law of the bride and the groom, Kenneth Faulkner and Harold Davison, both of Brampton. Receiving afterwards in the church basement, the bride's mother wore an olive green dress of embossed taffeta, rust and brown accessories and a corsage of tallisman roses. The groom's mother wore a charcoal grey dress of brocade crystalite, sequin-trimmed, pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Travelling to the States for their honeymoon, the bride wore a beige suit, brown accessories, a pale green feathered hat and pink rose corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Leitch will be living in Erin.

Guests attended the wedding and reception from Brampton, Mount Forest, Toronto, Georgetown and Erin.

HORNBY

BOOKMOBILE WILL VISIT DISTRICT EVERY TUESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Robt. McLaughlin of Tottenham visited with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bradley on Sunday.

The St. Stephen's Guild had a booth at Georgetown Fair and reported having a fairly good day. The children in Hornby have caught up with the hula hoop idea, so well that nearly every family has one. The grown ups are trying them too.

We are glad to hear that Mrs. Vinc Figliomeni is home from the hospital but she is still confined to her bed.

The Trafalgar Bookmobile stopped at Drummond Store and Hornby United Church last Tuesday. The ones that took the opportunity of the travelling library were really satisfied with the wonderful selection of books, even little story books to read to small tots. It will call in the district every Tuesday.

Little Karen Bradley cut her foot on glass last week. The cut required two stitches to close it.

Miss Edna Fieldhouse of Toronto visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Learmont and family for a few days this week.

Mrs. Fred Huffman was taken to Hamilton General Hospital last week for an operation. We hope she will be well and home again soon.

The WMS and afternoon WA of the Hornby United Church held their October meeting at the home of Mrs. John Wallace with twelve members present on Thursday afternoon, October 2nd. The meeting opened in the usual manner. The fall rally of the WMS is to be held at the Hornby church and the dinner was planned.

The fifth line group was in charge of the program and it proved very interesting. The meeting closed with prayer. The W.A. opened their meeting with the theme followed by the Lord's Prayer. After a lengthy discussion it was decided to hold their bazaar on the original date of November 8th. The banquet convenor Mrs. L. Sampson gave each member their part of the coming banquet. A Thanksgiving prayer ended the meeting. Mrs. M. Brown and Mrs. Doug Leslie assisted the hostess to serve lunch.

Birthday greetings to Karen Bradley who will be six years old on October 10th.
