Bill Farmer Awarded Rotary Anne Bursary

Bill Farmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Farmer, 38 Main St. S., was awarded the Rotary Anne bursary award. Bill is a student at Waterloo College, where he is studying Engineering. It is the first year that the bursary, established by wives of Rotarians, has been offered in town, and it will be a yearly award from now on.

CONDUCTS LUCKY DRAW FOR HOSPITAL FUNDS

A contribution to the Georgetown hospital fund has been made by Mrs. Muriel Adams, 82 Gueph Street. Not only did Mrs. Adams organize a lucky draw, selling a number of tickets in town and at the fair on Saturday, but she contributed the two prizes, an afghan and a crocheted centrepiece. Mrs. Joe Dwyer, Sr., Chapel St., won the afghan and Mrs. Julia Mouritzen, Park Ave., the centrepiece.

COMMUNITY CONCERTS SEEK MORE SUPPORT FROM PUBLIC

Attendants at the final Community Concert on Saturday learned that unless more members are signed up for another season, it is doubtful that Georgetown can be included in the bookings. The concerts have been subsidized for two years by the central organization, and must become self-sufficient in future.

Friday Opening For New Bradbury Store

The south end of Main Street is acquiring a "new look" with the opening of stores in the new Lickata Block. One of the stores, opening on Friday, October 10th is Bradbury's, directly on the corner of Church and Main Sts. Mrs. Win Bradbury, wife of Ligh Sherron, live at 21 Market St. and have been residents of Georgetown since 1946. Mr. Bradbury is keenly interested in the intermediate hockey team having played with them for a number of years. Mrs. Bradbury was a former member of Cotton Brothers staff and is well experienced for the venture she is undertaking. She is a member of the North Halton Golf & Country Club, Verdun Rebekah Lodge, Business & Professional Women's Club and they are members of St. George's Anglican Church.

The new ultra modern store will have all well known high fashion sports clothes for milady from many "name" houses. There will be coats, dresses, wedding ensembles, skirts, blouses, sweaters, lingerie, and many other items. The permanent staff will comprise Mrs. Ed Faris and Miss Margaret Wegg and Sherron Bradbury will be in the shop after school hours.
