Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bernhardt, Brenda and Karl of Toronto were holiday guests with Mr. and Mrs. Doug Davidson, 5 Parkview Blvd.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Stein, Queen Street, spent the holiday week-end in Detroit, Mich., with a friend Miss Eleanor McGarrah.

Mr. and Mrs. William McNally, 22 Market St. and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barber, 1 William St. spent the holiday week-end at the Barber cottage at Port Carling.

Miss Glenna Doherty, Hewson Crescent and Miss Gretchen Bradley, Victoria Street were week-end guests of Miss Marilyn Bell, Sarnia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ian Ritchie and daughter Shelagh, 7 Orchard Blvd have returned from two weeks' vacation visiting relatives and friends on Long Island and in New Jersey.

Dr. and Mrs. Andy Molozzi, Ottawa, were holiday week-end guests with her mother, Mrs. C. Sargent, Charles Street. Mr. and Mrs. Skip Sargent and their son Jimmy of Brantford were also week-end guests.

Billy Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Kelly, Maple Ave. West, celebrated his fifth birthday with a party at his home. The five guests who attended his party were Bill Calder, Robin Ord, Barry Shortill, Ritchie Linton and Nigel Spicer.

Three public school teachers spent a recent week-end on a canoe trip in Algonquin Park. Members of the party were Harold Henry and Logan MacDonald, principal and assistant principal of Harrison School, and Harold Catling, principal of the new Park Public School.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Henry, 15 Market St. had guests from Toronto with them for Thanksgiving. Mrs. William Rowley, Mrs. C. Bracken and Mr. and Mrs. William McGeary, Mr. McGeary, who is Mrs. Henry's uncle, was formerly book review editor of the Toronto Star.

Mr. and Mrs. Alan McGillivray and their sons Stuart and Bobby of Ajax were guests of her mother Mrs. W. King, 55 Market Street, for the Thanksgiving week-end. Mrs. King's daughter Gail, a nurse in training at Guelph General Hospital was also home for the week-end.

Mary Jane Elizabeth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John McClure, King Street, celebrated her fifth birthday recently. Assisting her blowing out the candles were her brother William John, Mary and Stephen Dolson. Also attending were Mrs. Frank Dolson, Brampton, Mrs. Wilfred Kirkwood, Misses Agnes, Mary and Islay McClure, Mrs. William Hutchinson and Mrs. Delbert Arnott, Streetsville.

'First Aid' Topic of Dr. Jaquith's Speech

"Emergencies and how to handle them" was the topic at the October meeting of the Terra Cotta Farmers' Club held on Monday, October 6th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore. The guest speaker at the meeting was Dr. L. E. Jaquith of Terra Cotta who spoke on First Aid. A question period followed his address.

The roll call for the women's portion of the meeting was well answered with "What gave me pep" and the motto "Don't work your body till your brain can't work" was presented by Mrs. Clarence Lyons. Mrs. Art McKane and Mrs. George Frazer were appointed nominating committee and will present their suggested slate of officers for the 1959 season at a future meeting.

A number of violin solos by Archie Fuller provided the entertainment during the joint meeting and a vote of thanks to those taking part was offered by Lloyd Crichton.
