MEMORIALS

ARMSTRONG - In loving memory of our dear daughter, Jean Margaret, who died October 26, 1948. For her, life more abundant, For us, a guiding star.

—Always missed by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong and family

HARLEY - In loving memory of a dear husband and father, Dean Stanley Harley, who departed this life Oct. 20th, 1955. Still loved, still missed, still remembered.

—Ever remembered by wife Bertha and son Terry.

HARLEY - In loving memory of our dear father, Dean Stanley Harley, who passed away Oct. 20th, 1955.

Thoughts wander, as daylight fades,

To the land of long ago;

And memory paints old scenes

In the gold of the twilight glow;

I seem to see in the soft dim light,

A face I loved the best,

I think of him when daytime

Fades in the far-off west.

—Lovingly remembered by son Bruce, daughter-in-law Mae, and grandchildren.

HARLEY - In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Dean Stanley Harley who passed away Oct. 20th, 1955.

Only a memory of bygone days,

And a sigh for a face unseen;

A constant feeling that God alone

Knows best what should have been

—Ever remembered by Jean, Don and family.

HARLEY - In loving memory of a dear father, Dean S. Harley, who passed away October 20th, 1955.

Though his smile is gone forever,

And his hand we cannot touch

Still we have so many memories

Of the one we loved so much;

His memory is our keepsake,

With which we'll never part.

God has him in his keeping;

We have him in our heart.

—Ever remembered by daughter Bessie son-in-law Don and grandchildren, Bobby, Mark, Brenda and Lori.

HUFFMAN - In loving memory of Ivan N. Huffman, who died October 17th, 1954.

A beautiful memory of one so dear

We cherish still with love sincere;

A day that comes with sad regrets

To one that we will never forget

—The Huffman family

MARCHMENT - In loving memory of Walter Marchment, who passed away a year ago today October 22nd, 1957.

Your presence is ever near us,

Your love remains with us yet,

You were the kind of a father

Your loved ones could never forget.

—Lovingly remembered by wife and family.

MARCHMENT - In loving memory of Walter Marchment who passed away October 22nd, 1957.

Looking back with memories,

Upon the path you trod,

We bless the years we had with you

And leave the rest with God.

—Always remembered, Bert and Donna Marchment.

SMETHURST - In loving memory of Sgt. Major A. J. Smethurst, 164 Bn. (transferred to 118th) who passed away in Christie St. Hospital, Oct. 29th, 1942.

—Wife and family.

HAVE YOU JOINED THE FAMILY DIVIDEND PLAN?

Literally thousands already have, if you are not aware of this opportunity, we cordially invite you to read the following details.

HOW THE PLAN WORKS

Members of the Family Dividend Plan, through loyal continued shopping, make possible extra savings which come back to them as Dividend Credits. These may apply on the purchase of more food products or merchandise from the value-packed Family Dividend Catalogue. Additional dividends are offered in turn on these extra purchases. Each week specified products on sale will also offer extra 'Dividend Credits' as 'Dividend Boosters' if they are purchased. Judicious buying of these extra weekly Dividend Booster Features will permit plan members to greatly increase their savings of Dividend Credits regularly issued with all purchases. For every dollar you spend on orders through the Family Dividend Plan Catalogue, you get a Dividend Credit worth five cents. For every dollar you spend in an IGA market, you receive a Dividend Credit equal to one cent. These credits, when accumulated, conveniently may be used at your IGA market for food or for additional catalogue purchases.

CARDS OF THANKS

BULLOCK - I would like to thank friends and neighbours, Glen United Church, Women's Auxiliary and Odd Fellows for the lovely cards, gifts and flowers sent to me while I was a patient in Guelph General Hospital and since returning home. — Bert Bullock

HANCOCK - We would like to thank our neighbours and other friends and relatives for their acts of kindness, words of sympathy and floral tributes at the time of our sad bereavement in the loss of a dear husband and father. Also special thanks to Rev. J. Rathbone for his comforting words; Dr. Macintosh and nurses of Guelph General Hospital. — Mrs. John Hancock and family.

MORAN - We wish to express thanks to friends, neighbours and relatives for their many kindnesses, expressions of sympathy and cards, in the loss of our dear mother, sister and grandmother. — The Moran family and M. Maude Young.

O'BRIEN - I would like to thank my friends and neighbours for the cards and gifts sent to me while in hospital and since coming home; also for visiting me. It was really appreciated. — Mrs. Ed. O'Brien, Glen Williams.

RIGG - I can only say thank you to all those who showed so much kindness to me during my husband's illness and at the time of his death, and for all the beautiful tributes to his memory. — Sincerely, Winnifred Rigg.

TENNANT - I wish to extend sincere thanks to the Imperial Section, Branch 120, Canadian Legion for the lovely wallet and contents presented to me. Thank you very much. — Sam Tennant.

CHRIST and BAHU'LLAH

Last week the clergy of all denominations received a letter that said in part:

"Baha'u'llah has proclaimed Himself to be the Promised One so long awaited by men of all faiths . . ."

"Speaking to the Christians of the world, Baha'u'llah says 'Followers of the Gospel — behold the gates of heaven are flung open and He that had ascended into it is now come. Verily, I say this is the day in which mankind can behold the Face and hear the Voice of the Promised One. Blessed is the ear that hath heard and the eye that hath seen and the heart that hath turned unto Him.'"

"Baha'is in two hundred and fifty countries, territories and islands from all religious backgrounds believe Baha'u'llah is truly the Promised One of all Ages — the return of the Christ — the Glory of God."

We urge you to discuss the twenty-fourth chapter of Matthew with your ministers, priest and friends. For further information write for a complimentary copy of the "Reality of the Return."
