

HORNBY

REPORT PROFITABLE DAYS AT GEORGETOWN, MILTON FAIRS

The St. Stephen's Guild met at the home of Mrs. John Bradley on Tuesday evening, Oct. 7th. The president, Mrs. Wm. Bradley opened the meeting with the Guild Prayer. After the usual business Mrs. Arthur Plant gave a full and very profitable report on the Milton and Georgetown fair booths and thanked all for their help. It was decided to give the Sunday School children seeds next spring for a garden, to help provide the vegetables and fruits for the Church Decorations next Harvest Home. Mrs. Howard Bradley was quite willing to make the Christmas cake for the coming bazaar October 25th. A $10 donation was given to the Sunday School for the prizes and candy for the Little Helpers Halloween party. Many articles were handed in for the bazaar. The next meeting to be held the evening before the bazaar at the church. The meeting closed with prayer and lunch was served.

Doug Leslie, Gordon Lee of Hornby and Robert Neilson and Ross Brown of Grand Valley spent the holiday week-end on a fishing trip near Virginiatown in northern Ontario.

A seventy foot well has been recently drilled at the Hornby public school and the water is nearly to the top of the well.

The Evening W.A. of Hornby United Church held their October meeting in the church basement on Monday, the 8th.

President Mrs. Jim Reid presided over the meeting. Mrs. Martin Southwood read the minutes and Mrs. Arthur Death gave the treasurer's report. Mrs. Doug Leslie read the scripture, a story and followed with prayer. The church calendars were given out to the members to be sold. Mrs. Lois Reid showed some pictures of autumn scenes of the surrounding districts. Lunch was served by Mrs. Tom Bousefield.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Jim Reid, nine members were present for the first Mission Band meeting of the year on Wednesday afternoon, October 8th.

The junior boys and girls coloured and then the leader read a few stories. The collection was taken and lunch of cookies and chocolate milk were enjoyed by the children.

On Wednesday evening, October 8th under the leadership of the Rev. and Mrs. John Hill the Girl Explorers and the Boys Tyro clubs were newly formed at the Hornby United Church. The meeting was in the form of a song prayer, and games were played. The next meeting is to be held on Monday, October 20th. Lunch was served to the children.

Saturday evening on the way home from the International Plowing Match Mr. Stanley May's truck broke down. He called the Hornby garage and was towed home by the garage tow truck from the other side of Toronto. Mr. May and his brother Lloyd had four of their horses in the truck.

Karen Bradley celebrated her sixth birthday with a party on Saturday afternoon at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley with twenty four children to help her celebrate.

Anniversary services were held at the Hornby United Church on Sunday, October 12th. Both morning and evening services were well attended.

The Rev. J. Hill was the minister for the morning service and gave an inspiring sermon using as the theme "Reconcile to God."

Mr. Ken Galloway, guest soloist rendered two solos and the church choir an anthem.

Rev. Morgan McFarlane of Georgetown was the guest speaker for the evening service and took as his theme, "God is my Future." Miss Donna McMillan of Acton was guest soloist and sang a delightful solo and the church choir sang two anthems. Miss Marilyn May is the able choir leader and Mrs. George Elliott of Milton assisted on the organ for the day.

Miss Nellie Jardine of Brussels visited with Mr. and Mrs. Archie King over the holiday week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Saunders were in a car accident early on Sunday morning. They were turning into Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradley's laneway when they were hit from behind by a half ton truck. The Saunders car had the back door smashed in and the front of the truck was badly damaged. One passenger in the truck received a slight concussion and the others were badly shaken up.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Giles of Montreal spent the holiday week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Downs.

Keith Ella is a patient in Hamilton General Hospital. He has been in for a week waiting to have his injured knee operated on. Keith will be in for a week or more after the operation.

Lorne Ella won the Royal Bank silver trophy at Erin Fair on Saturday for the champion dairy calf over all breeds in the 4H club work.

The community was deeply saddened to hear of the sudden death of Mrs. Foster Brain. Mr. Brain is in the Orangeville hospital. They were in an auto accident. Sincere sympathy is extended to the Brain family.

Elaine Rinehart Weds
Antonio (Tony) Zilio

Baskets of pink and white gladioli decorated Union Presbyterian Church, Terra Cotta, when Elaine Rinehart and Antonio (Tony) Rino Zilio spoke their wedding vows before Rev. G. L. Royal.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amaran Leonard Rinehart, R R 1, Mono Road, and parents of the groom, are Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Zilio, of Terra Cotta. Miss A. Puckering of Terra Cotta played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Dolson of Terra Cotta, who sang "O Promise Me" and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin, featuring long sleeves, sabrina neckline, fitted lace bodice and a drop waistline with a full skirt of two tiers of lace trimmed net, which dipped in the back to form a chapel train. A tiara of pearls and sequins held the nylon tulle fingertip veil, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white mums and red roses.

The attendants were Miss Rena Wigley of Streetsville, maid of honour; Miss Doris Silk, Georgetown, bridesmaid, and Miss Patsy Reinhart, sister of the bride, the junior bridesmaid. They wore identically styled gowns, the maid of honour and junior bridesmaid in pink taffeta and net, and the bridesmaid in aqua. They wore matching feather hats and carried cascade bouquets of yellow mums.

The groomsmen were Bob Wolf of Terra Cotta, and ushering were Amaran Rinehart, the bride's brother and the groom's brother, Alex Zilio.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at St. Alban's Parish Hall, Glen Williams. The bride's mother received the guests in a gown of teal blue, with winter white accessories, and a corsage of pink carnations. The groom's mother assisted in a pale pink lace gown over taffeta, navy accessories and a corsage of white baby mums.

For a honeymoon trip in the United States, the bride travelled in a royal blue sheath dress, white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mr. and Mrs. Zilio will live in Terra Cotta.
