Mrs. Douglas Sargent was in charge of the tea room and her assistants were Mrs. Doug Sargent, Mrs. George Walker, Mrs. George Landreville, Mrs. Harold Fobert, Mrs. Thomas Curran and Mrs. J. Pignatell.

A fee bar to tempt the guests with for many years, Clement M. Lusty. In the evening there was a coffee bar to tempt the guests with Mrs. George C. Hewson in charge assisted by Mrs. Bruce Wilson and Mrs. Ron Hunt.

Winners of the lucky draws were: fancy cake Mrs. Neil Guerin; water softener Mrs. A. O'Byrne; bride doll, Joanne Wiczarzik; baby doll, Mrs. R. Neale; stuffed monkey, Mrs. Williams. The second stuffed monkey was won by No. 26 but the winner is unknown.

Mrs. M. McFarlane, Churchill Crescent won the grand prize of $200. The next four winners of $100, $75, $50 and $50 were all from Toronto. Frank Kushelema, S. Goss, Walter Kroll and Kathleen McCarthy. The final prize of $25 went to Doug Ward of Glen Williams.

May See Six Teams In Industrial Hockey

Georgetown's industrial hockey league may expand from four to a six team circuit this season if entry being sought by to additional clubs is granted at a league meeting tomorrow night at the arena.

Delegates from Glen Williams and Co-Op expressed their eagerness to join the league at a meeting last Friday at the arena when representatives from the other teams met to discuss rules and regulations. Last year Glen Williams and Co-Op played their hockey Sunday nights, mainly against each other.

A strong contender last season, Provincial Paper announced their withdrawal from the league, however their skates will be filled by a second combine team to be organized by Paul Barber, who represented the coaters at the meeting. Don White was there for Smith & Stone, Carl Petterson for the champion Combines, Nick Nowelski and Ted Lucuk for Toronto, Ernie Thompson for Glen Williams and Gerry Perkins, Bud Hayes and Jim Wilson for Co-Op.

The Thursday meeting will be

HAVE YOU JOINED THE FAMILY DIVIDEND PLAN?

Literally thousands already have, if you are not aware of this opportunity, we cordially invite you to read the following details.

HOW THE PLAN WORKS

Members of the Family Dividend Plan, through loyal continued shopping, make possible extra savings which come back to them as Dividend Credits. These they may apply on the purchase of more food products or merchandise from the value-packed Family Dividend Catalogue. Additional dividends are offered in turn on these extra purchases. Each week specified products on sale will also offer extra "Dividend Credits" as "Dividend Boosters" if they are purchased. Judicious buying of these extra weekly Dividend Booster Features will permit plan members to greatly increase their savings of Dividend Credits regularly issued with all purchases. For every dollar you spend on orders through the Family Dividend Plan Catalogue, you get a Dividend Credit worth five cents. For every dollar you spend in an IGA market, you receive a Dividend Credit equal to one cent. These credits, when accumulated, conveniently, may be used at your IGA market for food or for additional catalogue purchases.

HORNBY

SURPRISE DINNER PARTY FOR CHARLIE BROOKS

Mrs. Wm. Lindsay held a surprise dinner party for her brother, Mr. Charlie Brooks of Hornby, on Monday, October 13th in honor of his 80th birthday on October 15th. The dinner was held on Monday at noon with seventeen of Mr. Brooks' nieces and nephews present. There were 80 friends and relatives called during the afternoon and evening to extend their best wishes to Mr. Brooks. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hearnes on the birth of their daughter on Friday, October 17th at Oakville Hospital.

Two hundred and eighty people attended and enjoyed the turkey supper on Thursday evening, October 16th at the Hornby United Church hall. The ladies of the church prepared the delicious dinner and the members of the choir served the food.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aselton, Norma and David, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Aselton and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Beeny were guests at a wedding in Niagara Falls on October 11th.

Mr. John E. Wilson is a patient in Milton Private Hospital. We wish him a speedy get well.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cook of Bellewood visited with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bradley on Sunday. Birthday greetings to Mrs. Garnet Howden on October 26th.

Seventeen guests attended a Stanley brush demonstration sponsored by the Hornby Girls ball club on Tuesday, October 14th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Garnet Howden.

Mrs. Stella Parton was the demonstrator. During the evening she conducted a few games and prizes were given to the winners. Lunch was served by the hostess. The infant daughters of Mr. and Mrs. M. Southwood and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Craig and the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marchment were baptized by the Rev. J. Hill at the morning service at Hornby United Church on Sunday.

LIMEHOUSE

KNOX STUDENT PREACHES SUNDAY CHURCH SERVICE

Mr. Mellroy, student at Knox College, Toronto, conducted services at Limehouse Presbyterian Church on Sunday in the absence of Rev. A. J. Calder, who was in charge of anniversary services at his home church at Beaverton.

We regret that Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Findlay are both in hospital, but we wish them improved health soon.

Mr. Archie McDonald is convalescing in Guelph General Hospital, following an abdominal operation.

Mrs. W. Mitchell was hostess for the fall thanksgiving meeting of Limehouse WMS on Tuesday evening last week, about thirty attending. Mr. Darcie, a native of Bermuda was guest speaker, entitling his well prepared talks "Does Your Religion Touch You?" He compared the church service of the south with that to which we are accustomed, telling us of the expressiveness of the southern, while our has become so quiet that perhaps civilization has pressed and pressed religion into one segment.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. A. W. Benton and Mrs. J. Roughley gave the courtesies report. Scripture was read by Mrs. Smethurst and Mrs. Mills led in prayer. Rev. A. Calder was the appreciated soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Roughley. Mrs. Buchanan of Acton brought greetings from her group and Mrs. Wm. Sinclair expressed good wishes of the Georgetown society. A social hour followed Rev. Calder's benediction.

Mrs. Stella Parton was the demonstrator. During the evening she conducted a few games and prizes were given to the winners. Lunch was served by the hostess.

The infant daughters of Mr. and Mrs. M. Southwood and Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Craig and the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Marchment were baptized by the Rev. J. Hill at the morning service at Hornby United Church on Sunday.

At the home of Jack and Rae McAusland, 17 Norton Crescent, a farewell night was held for William R. King from Scarborough, England. Mr. King was visiting Canada on a month's vacation. Saying goodbye were his son Robert, daughter-in-law Mima, daughter Madge and son-in-law Eric. Other guests included Bill and Nance Spence, Miss Flora MacDonald and Alice and Tom Hutchison of Prince Charles Drive. Good wishes from all to "Pop" who flies home on Tuesday, November 4th.
