IODE Chapter Organizes Blind Campaign Canvass

Planning for a canvass for the Blind which took place the first three days of this week was one of the main business items at the October meeting of Countess of Strathmore Chapter, I.O.D.E. Mrs. Leslie Clark, regent of the chapter, convened the canvass with assistance from members of the IODE, the Legion Ladies Auxiliary and other interested ladies.

Mrs. John Gunn, Maple Ave. W. was hostess for the meeting. Mrs. Edwin Wilson and Mrs. Robert Jones were named to assist at the November baby clinics. Mrs. Bob Reichardt reported on the sale of aprons and other blind-craft products at the fall fair, where a booth was operated by the I.O.D.E. Mrs. Cecil Davidson gave a report on the sale of Christmas cards and supplies which members will be selling again this year.

A bale of used clothing will be sent to the Chapter's adopted northern school and treats of candy and nuts will be sent to the pupils at Christmas.

Miss Ruth Evans was appointed as a representative to Georgetown Hospital committee, replacing Mrs. Wm. B. Hamilton, who is already a committee member. Papers were given by Mrs. Percy Leslie and Mrs. Robert Jones, describing India and its culture, and the prime ministers of British Commonwealth including New Zealand, Ceylon, England and South Africa. Mrs. Gordon Tee was welcomed as a new Chapter member.

Mrs. Sam Penrice moved a vote of thanks to the hostess and her assistants, Mrs. Denney Charles, Mrs. Gordon Kidney, Mrs. Earl Lince, Mrs. J. Gillis, Mrs. Creighton and Mrs. Youmans. The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. James Linton.

CLUB MIDTOWN

by Dar

Hi gang, I heard that when my writeup didn't appear in last week's issue 30 more people bought the paper! Well! I guess that's life. Last Friday we had a "rare old time" at Midtown. The biggest kick of the evening was when mister "D. J." flipped on "The Mexican Hat Rock. Wow! what a wild time. I could have sworn the group next to me was about to take off.

This Friday we will be holding that once a year fad when everyone puts on a mask and goes out and collects candy. Yes, it's our big Hallow'een Ball so pick out a mask and come to Midtown, and ask the girl of your dreams to dance. She'll never know who it is with that mask on so don't pick too weird a one or you're liable to frighten her away. Then Nov. 7th the following week will be our anniversary dance. We'll be dancing to a band and a big stack of your favourite old and new records. It will be a wonderful evening for everybody. This week my top ten prediction is by Mr. Bobby "Spish Slash" Darin and called "Queen of the Hop." This one's already up on the charts so watch it. It's going to be the big gun, number one, in a little while.

Had visitors from another town? The Herald likes to include them in the Social and Personal column. You do us a favour when you phone — TR. 7-2201.
