ATTEND GRANDMOTHER'S FUNERAL IN LEAMINGTON

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Secord, 30 Shelley St., attended the funeral of her paternal grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Woltz in Leamington on Monday, October 13th.

Mrs. Woltz who had been in failing health for some time died in a Windsor hospital on Friday, October 10th at the age of eighty-three. She had always said that she hoped when it came her time to die that she would go when the fall came and the leaves were falling. She was born in the Leamington district and had lived there all her life. She and her husband, Alfred Lewis Woltz, who predeceased her over forty years ago farmed, moving to Leamington when he retired. She is survived by three sons and fifteen grandchildren.

The funeral service was conducted at the Russell Smith Funeral Home, Leamington with interment in Cottam Cemetery, Leamington.

IN MEMORIAM
WHEELER—In loving memory of a dear grandmother, Mrs. John Wheeler, who passed away Oct. 31st, 1855.

—Always remembered by Mary and Al Grieve and children.

ERIN PRESENTATION FOR SAM LEITCH, BRIDE

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Sanderson were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Long street and family of Orton and Mr. and Mrs. L. Sanderson and family from Brampton.

Vonnie and Billy Spearing visited their mother in London on Sunday and Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McEary and family visited in Milton with Mr. and Mrs. E. Gullis.

The W.A. met for their October meeting at the home of Mrs. Larkman on Tuesday of last week. There was a good attendance and the ladies made plans for their annual bazaar and tea on the last Saturday in November. Lunch was served by the hostess and the social committee.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Black and family were in Fergus for the week end and while there attended the 125th birthday party of the town held in the arena on Saturday night.

Mission Band was held in the church basement on Sunday, with 20 members and nine visitors attending. The leader, Mrs. A. Law opened the thanksgiving worship service with a reading from Psalm 136 and Brian Sinclair gave a thanksgiving scripture and prayer. Offering and dedication was in charge of Linda Burt and Di Anne Snow read a short poem "God Our Master Scientist." A prayer for missionaries was given by Alan Jamieson. The mission band members are making an effort to collect as many new and used pencils for Korean school children and anyone in the neighbourhood who has pencils to spare, would they kindly get in touch with any of the members. Mrs. C. Snow read the second chapter from the topic book, "A Japanese Doll." The meeting closed with the singing of Hymn 585 and the repeating of the mission band purpose.

CGIT met in the church on Monday night for a work meeting and the learning of some special songs.

A presentation for Mr. and Mrs. Sam Leitch, Erin, nee Margaret Hamilton was held on Saturday night in the coliseum at Erin. There was a splendid turnout to offer congratulations and good wishes to the newly married couple with representatives from both their communities being responsible for the party. Music for the dancing was supplied by Woods' Orchestra from Fergus and a delicious lunch was served.
