Harrison School Has
Meet the Teacher Night

A very interesting and informative evening at Harrison School was enjoyed by the parents on Monday, November 3rd. Principal Harold Henry spoke to the guests over the P.A. system concerning school policy and the wearing of school uniforms. Each teacher gave a talk on the schedule of work for the year in her grade and the required reading. A limited discussion followed. The bell rang and the parents moved on to the next grade they were interested in. Pamphlets on "Behaviour Problems," "Pre-School Play," "Toy Selections," etc. were sold in the hall by Mrs. D. Hetherington. Membership fees were also received. Mrs. John Easdale served a luncheon of cookies and coffee.

Several Local Winners
In Star Picture Puzzle

While none of the big prizes came to this district, a total of almost $200 will be shared by several local winners in the Know Ontario contest which recently concluded in the Toronto Star.

Some 2436 people in various parts of Canada won portions of the $78,000 prize money in the cartoon contest which kept thousands of people interested over the past few months as they puzzled out names of towns hidden in the clues. The prize winners list was published in Saturday's Star, following a tie-breaker in which all those who had perfect scores or only one wrong answer were entrants.

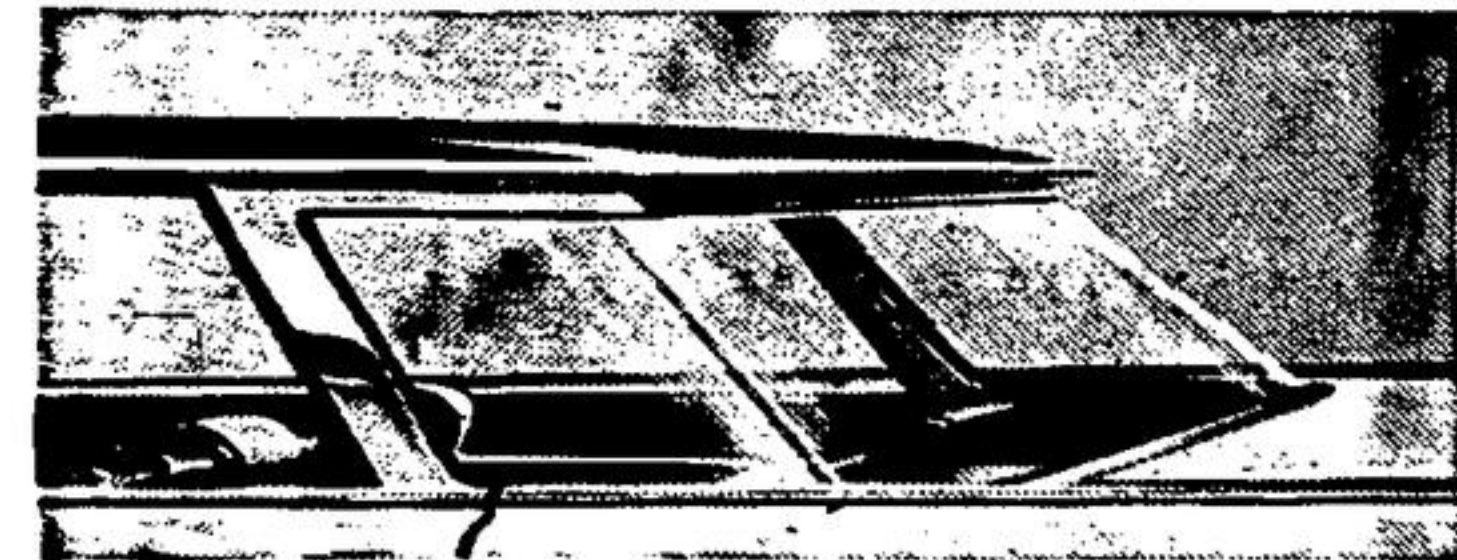

Top winner locally was Elgin Burrows, 24 Bairdrow Crescent, who will receive $48.55. Three residents won $24.52 each, Mrs. Lorne Hunter, 7 Dufferin Street, Mrs. Victor MacDonald, 38 Maple Ave. W., and James Reaves, 27 McIntyre Crescent. Ten dollar prizes were won by Rev. W. C. Murdoch, 51 Market St., Fred Peebles, 68 Main St. N., Mrs. Don Powers, 144 Rexway Dr., Mrs. Wm. F. Smith, 22 Park Ave., and Joe Stamp, 28 Churchill Crescent. Five dollar prizewinners were Mrs. Arthur Payne, 49 Ewing St., Charles Renwick, 18 Victoria Crescent and Mrs. Maurice Manderson, 20 Tyers Ave.
