FARM NEWS

MAC SPROWL ELECTED FEDERATION PRESIDENT

Thursday evening of last week saw the annual meeting of the Esquesing Federation of Agriculture held in the Esquesing township hall, at Stewarttown.

The highlight of the evening's programme was an address by Dr. W. D. Hopper, of the Farm Economics branch at the Ontario Agricultural College, on the subject of Vertical Integration or so called Contract Farming. His address was thought stimulating or provoking, and perhaps here and there bit controversial. The fact that 13 per cent of our population who are engaged in farming receive only 7 per cent of our National Income indicates that we still have too many farmers - and he added it is only the most efficient. able to stay in the business of agworker in industry.

> After the parade a week ago, we were invited out to the mess in the local armoury, and were amazed at the wonderful job that has been done transforming their quarters. While there SM Ken Murray told us a story on Pat Chamberlain. According to Ken. Pat comes from way back in the bush in New Brun swick, and until he saw the 'light' and moved here, had never even seen a train.

The joke is as follows: It seems that Pat, and another swamp run ner were out hunting one day. and in the trackless forest they came across two bands of steel stretching in a straight line off into the distance. They tried walking along it, and found i much easier going. However, it became darker, and suddenly a frightening toot toot, was heard behind them, and they glanced around to see a huge glaring bright eye bearing down on them. They started to run down the track, the one eyed steam-puffing monster following them, with its glaring

Finally as it gainde remorselessly on them, Pat's companion said; "Maybe if we got off this steel track we could hide on in the

"The h . . . with that", said Pat. I'm staying running on the track. The footin's better!"

We hear via the grapevine joint party with the Auxiliary is under discussion by the executive Détails later.

The regular monthly meeting of the Branch will be held on Thurs. day evening. November 27th in the auditorium. Let's see a good urnout for the last meeting the year.
